

A BILL

FOR

AN ACT TO MAKE PROVISIONS FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH IN NIGERIA AND FOR RELATED MATTERS

Sponsored by Senator Kushamu Burunji

[] Commencement

BE IT ENACTED by the National Assembly of the Federal Republic of Nigeria as follows:

1 PART I - GENERAL

2 1. The Act may be cited as Mental Health Bill, 2015

Citation

3 2. In the Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

Application

4 (a) "Mental Disorder" means any disability or disorder of mind or 5 brain, whether permanent or temporary, which results in an impairment or 6 disturbance of mental functioning. Social deviance or conflict alone without 7 disturbance of mental functioning is not mental disorder;

8 (b) "mental impairment" means a state of arrested or incomplete
9 development of mind which includes significant impairment of intelligence 10 and social functioning and is associated with abnormally aggressive or 11 seriously irresponsible conduct on the part of the person concerned.

12 PART II - INSTITUTIONS FOR THE CARE OF PERSONS WITH 13 MENTAL DISORDERS

14 3.-(1) The Government of the Federation, or of a State, or of a 15 Local Government Area; or a private organization or an individual, may 16 establish and maintain hospitals and medical facilities even in penal 17 institutions, for the treatment and care of persons with mental and 18 behavioural disorders and for the training of medical and other health 19 personnel for the treatment of such persons.

Establishment of Institutions

20 (2) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette, appoint 21 the whole or part of any public building with any houses, grounds or

1 premises belonging thereto, which meets stipulated minimum standard, to be a 2 mental health facility. Accordingly, all such places which existed before the 3 commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed and under this 4 Act.

5 (3) The Minister may in like manner declare that any place shall cease 6 to be a mental health facility.

7 (4) For any facility to be designated as Psychiatric Hospital for the 8 purpose of this section, it shall comply with such conditions (as it relates to the 9 quality and number of personnel, the number of beds in the hospital, the 10 equipment and facilities provided in the hospital) as the Minister may from 11 time to time prescribe.

12 (5) There shall be appointed for each Psychiatric Hospital established 13 pursuant to this Act a Medical Director who shall be a Medical Practitioner 14 recognised by the Medical and Dental Council of Nigeria as having special 15 training and requisite experience in the diagnosis and treatment of persons with 16 mental and behavioural disorders.

17 (6) There shall also be appointed for each Psychiatric Hospital such 18 medical practitioners, practitioners in such fields allied to medicine and any 19 other staff as may be deemed necessary by the hospital management.

20 (7) There shall be established in each general hospital and other 21 similar medical institutions separate wards for admission and care of patients 22 with mental and behavioural disorder.

23 (8) There shall be established in all Primary Health Care Centres a 24 component unit for referral services and follow up care for persons with mental 25 disorder.

26 PART III - ADMISSION AND DISCHARGE OF PATIENTS

27 4. Any person who requires treatment for mental disorder, may be 28 admitted voluntarily into any hospital or other facility approved for that 29 purpose by the government, pursuant to Section 3 of this Act.

1 5.-(1) A person may be admitted to a hospital and there detained for Compulsory 2 periods specified by sections of this Part of the Act on an application for Admission 3 admission for observation on grounds that:

4 (a) he is suffering from mental and behavioural disorder of a nature 5 or degree which warrants his compulsory admission in a hospital for 6 observation (with or without medical treatment) for a limited period; and 7 (b) he ought to be so detained in the interest of his own safety or 8 with a view to protecting the safety and interest of other persons.

9 (2) An application pursuant to Subsection (1) of this section shall 10 be made on the written recommendation of a medical practitioner in the 11 prescribed form stating that the conditions set out in paragraphs (a) and (b)
12 of Subsection (1) of the section are satisfied.

13 (3) A patient admitted pursuant to this section may be detained for a 14 period not exceeding 28 days, beginning with the day on which he is 15 admitted. He may however be detained thereafter if he becomes liable for 16 compulsory admission again by virtue of a subsequent application, order, or 17 direction under any of the following provisions of this Act.

18 6.-(1) An emergency application may be made either by a health Emergency 19 care worker or by any relative of the patient in case of urgent necessity for Application 20 the patient to be admitted and detained under Section 5 of this Act, but 21 compliance with the provisions of the Act relating to application for 22 admission for observation would involve undesirable delay.

23 (2) A patient admitted pursuant to this section may be detained for a 24 period of 3 days beginning with the day on which the application was made.

25 7.-(1) A person may be admitted to a hospital and there detained Application for 26 pursuant to an application for admission for treatment made in accordance Admission for 27 with the following provisions of this section. Treatment

28 (2) An application for admission for treatment may be made in 29 respect of a patient on the grounds set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of 30 Subsection (1) of Section 5.

1 (3) An application for treatment it shall be founded on the 'written 2 recommendations of two medical practitioners, who shall each state that in his 3 opinion:

4 (a) the patient is suffering from one or more of the forms of mental 5 disorder referred to in Section 2 of this Act;

6 (b) That the conditions set out in Subsection 2 of this section are met.

Application for compulsory
admission

7 8.-(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an application for the 8 compulsory admission of a patient for observation or treatment following a 9 period of compulsory admission for observation pursuant to Subsection 3 of 10 Section 5 may be made either by the nearest relative of the patient or a health 11 worker, and shall be addressed to the Medical Director of the hospital to which 12 admission is sought.

13 (2) The consent of the nearest relative of the patient is needed to make 14 the application, unless it becomes clear that in the circumstances further 15 consultations to achieve this would occasion unreasonable delay.

Medical
Recommendation
for Admission
of a Patient

16 9.-(1) the medical recommendation necessary to back up an 17 application for admission of a patient pursuant to the provisions of a of Section 18 8 shall be given by two medical practitioners who have personally examined 19 the patient either together or at an interval of not more than 7 days, and shall be 20 signed on or before the date of the application.

21 (2) One of the two medical practitioners required for the purposed of 22 Subsection (1) of this section shall be a medical practitioner who is a specialist 23 psychiatrist, or one with the experience in the diagnosis and treatment of 24 mental disorder.

Effect of Application for
Admission

25 10.-(1) An application for admission of a patient to a hospital under 26 the provisions of this part of this Act duly completed in accordance therewith 27 shall be' sufficient authority for the applicant, or any person authorised by him 28 to take and convey the patient to the hospital specified in such application:

29 (a) in case of an emergency application, within 3 days beginning with 30 the date on which the patient was examined by the medical practitioner giving

1 the recommendation referred to in Section 5 of this Act, at with the date of 2 the application whichever is earlier;

3 (b) in the case of an application other than an emergency 4 application, within 14 days beginning with the date on which the patient was 5 last examined by a. medical practitioner before giving the medical 6 recommendation.

7 (2) The application shall be sufficient for the Medical Director of 8 the hospital to which the patient is taken to detain him in the hospital in 9 accordance with the provisions of this Act.

10 (3) The application shall be sufficient to render any previous 11 application under this part of the Act by virtue of which he was liable to be 12 detained in a-hospital no longer effective.

13 (4) A patient admitted to a hospital pursuant to an application for 14 admission arid treatment may apply to a Mental Health Review Tribunal 15 within' six months from the day on which he was so admitted.

16 11. An application for the admission of a patient to a hospital may 17 be made under this part of this Act as follows:

Application in respect of Patient
already in Hospital

18 (a) in the case of an application for admission for treatment of a 19 patient who is already liable for detention for observation, where an 20 application is so made, the patient shall be treated for the purposes of the Act 21 as if he had been admitted to the hospital at the time when the application 22 was received by the Medical Director of the hospital;

23 (b) in the case of a patient under no detention application or order, if 24 it appears to the medical practitioner in charge of the patient that an 25 application ought to be made under this part of this Act for admission he may 26 furnish a report in writing to that effect to the medical director of the 27 hospital, and in such cases, the patient may be detained in the hospital for a 28 period of 3 days from the day on which the report is furnished, pending when 29 all other necessary conditions pursuant to Sections 8 and 9 may be satisfied.

Rectification of Application and Recommendation

1 12.-(1) If an application for admission for observation or for 2 treatment or any medical recommendation given for the purposes of the 3 application is found to be defective or incorrect and this is within a period not 4 exceeding 14 days beginning with the day on which the patient is admitted to a 5 hospital pursuant to the application, the medical director of the hospital shall 6 give consent for the defect or error to be rectified by the person by whom the 7 application or recommendation was signed; and the said application or 8 recommendation shall have effect and shall be deemed to have had effect as if it 9 has been originally made as eventually amended.

10 (2) If either of the medical recommendations given in accordance 11 with the provisions of this part of this Act is found insufficient to warrant the 12 patient's detention pursuant to the application, the medical director of the 13 hospital may within the fourteen days mentioned in Subsection (1) of this 14 section give notice in writing to that effect. A fresh medical recommendation 15 complying with the relevant provisions of this part of this Act (other than the 16 provisions relating to the time, signature, and the interval between 17 examination) submitted to the medical director within that period shall suffice, 18 provided that the other medical recommendation on which the application is 19 founded too also complies with all the relevant provisions.

Duration of Authority for Detention and
Renewal

20 13.-(1) A patient admitted pursuant to an application for admission for 21 treatment may be detained in a hospital for a period of 365 days beginning with 22 the day on which the patient was so admitted, but shall not be detained for any 23 longer period unless the authority for his subsequent detention is renewed 24 under the provisions of this section.

25 (2) Authority for the detention of a patient who has not previously 26 been discharged may be renewed under this section for periods of 365 days at a 27 time if it appears to the medical officer to be expedient. Provided that the 28 medical director of the hospital shall cause the patient to be informed on each 29 occasion, and the patient informed of his right to apply to a Mental Health 30 Review Tribunal.

1 14.-(1) Where a Police Officer or a staff of Social Welfare
2 Department of Government funds in a place to which the public has access, a 3 person who appears to him to be suffering from mental and behavioural 4 disorder and to be in immediate need of care or control, the police officer or 5 social welfare worker, as the case may be, may if he thinks it necessary to do 6 in the interest of that person or for the protection of other persons, remove 7 that person to a place of safety with a view to making an application for his 8 treatment and care under this Act.

Removal of Patient to a place of safety

9 (2) A person removed to a place of safety under this section may be 10 detained there for period not exceeding 72 hours for the purpose of enabling 11 him to be examined by a medical practitioner and of making any necessary 12 arrangements for his treatment or care.

13 (3) A police officer or any other person required or authorised by 14 this Act to take any person into custody or to convey or to detain any person 15 shall for the purposes of taking him into custody or conveying or detaining 16 him, have all the powers, authority, protection and privilege of a police 17 officer in the ordinary course of his duties as such.

18 (4) If any person being in lawful custody by virtue of this section 19 escapes, he may be retaken and returned to the hospital or place of safety:

20 (a) by the person who had his custody immediately before the 21 escape; or

22 (b) by any officer or the staff of the hospital, his nearest relative or 23 his guardian, or by a police officer if at the time of his escape he was liable to 24 be detained in a hospital.

25 15.-(1) The responsible medical officer may grant to any patient 26 who is for the time being liable to be detained in a hospital under this Act, 27 leave to be absent from the hospital subject to such conditions, as that officer 28 considers necessary in the interest of the patient or for the protection of other 29 persons.

Grant of Leave of Absence from Hospital

30 (2) Leave of absence may be granted under this Section either

1 indefinitely or for a specified period; and where leave is granted for a specified 2 period, that period may be further extended as the responsible medical officer 3 may deem fit.

4 (3) The responsible medical officer may by notice in writing' to the 5 patient or to the person for the meantime in charge of the patient, revoke the 6 leave of absence for the recall of the patient to the hospital if it appears to him 7 that it is necessary so to do in the interest of the patient's health and safety and 8 for the protection of others.

9 (4) A patient to whom a leave of absence is granted, under this section 10 shall not be recalled under Subsection (3) of this Section after he has ceased to 11 be liable to be detained under this Act.

12 (5) In all cases of removal of patient to hospital for the first time or 13 removal of a patient who breaches the condition of leave of absence, the police 14 shall be available to render assistance.

Order of Discharge
of a Patient

15 16. An order for discharge in respect of a patient detained under any 16 section of this part of this Act may be made:

17 (a) by the responsible medical officer or 'by. the medical director of 18 the hospital, where the patient is detained pursuant to an application for 19 admission of observation; or 20 (b) by the responsible medical officer, the medical director, or by the 21 nearest relation, where the patient is detained pursuant to an application for 22 admission for treatment. In other cases, the order shall be made pursuant to the 23 responsible medical officer's report that the circumstances leading to his 24 detention in the first place no longer exist.

Order of Discharge of a Nearest relative

25 17.-(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the patient's nearest 26 relative may at anytime apply for the discharge of a patient detained in hospital.

27 (2) The nearest relative of the patient in making such an application 28 shall. give a notice in writing in that regard not less than 72 hours to the medical 29 director. In the event .that the responsible medical officer furnishes the medical 30 director. of the hospital a report within 72 hours that in his opinion the patient, if

1 discharged, would be likely to act in a manner dangerous to himself and to 2 other persons:

3 (a) the application by the relative will not be granted;

4 (b) no further application for discharge of that patient shall be 5 entertained from that relative during a period of 3 months beginning with the 6 date of the medical report; and 7 (c) the medical director of the hospital shall cause the nearest 8 relative of the patient to be informed of his right to apply to a Mental Health

9 Review Tribunal in respect of the patient within a period of 28 days 10 beginning with the day on which he is so informed.

11 PART IV - ADMISSION OF PATIENTS CONCERNED WITHIN 12 CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

13 18.-(1) Where a person is convicted before a High Court of a 14 criminal offence, or before a Magistrate's Court of an offence punishable on 15 summary conviction with imprisonment, the court may by a hospital order 16 authorise his admission for observation in a hospital if it has cause to suspect 17 that the person may be suffering from mental disorder.

Power of Court to order Hospital
Admission

18 (2) Where the court is satisfied, on written evidence made within 19 seven days of admission of two medical practitioners, one of whom is 20 recognised to have special experience in the diagnosis and treatment of 21 mental and behavioural disorders that:

22 (a) the offender is suffering from mental disorder, severe mental 23 impairment or dis-social disorder;

24 (b) the mental disorder is of a severe nature or degree which 25 warrants the detention of the patient in a hospital for medical treatment; and 26 (c) the offender is likely to benefit from such treatment with respect 27 to future criminal tendency and behaviour.

28 The court may decide that the most suitable method of disposing of the case 29 is by means of an order under this section.

30 (3) Where an order is made under this section, the Court shall cause

1 the further detention of the criminal in the hospital where the initial assessment 2 of his mental state was made for further treatment until the patient (criminal) is 3 assessed as having made sufficient improvement to be discharged there from, 4 and a report in that respect from the medical practitioners who made the initial 5 assessment is placed before the court.

6 (4) On receiving such a report, the Court shall order the discharge of 7 the patient from hospital within three days of receiving the report.

8 (5) The provisions of this section shall apply in the case of a substance
9 abuser in breach of the provisions of the National Drug Law Enforcement 10 Agency Act.

Compulsory
Order

11 19. Where the patient has not made satisfactory progress with 12 treatment pursuant to Subsection (3) of Section 18 within six months of the 13 initial order, and a report in that respect from the medical practitioners referred 14 to in Section 18 is placed before the court, the court shall, in the interest of 15 public safety issue a compulsory order for the detention and treatment of the 16 patient for another period of six months and for multiple periods of six months 17 thereafter, provided that:

18 (a) the patient shall be advised on his right to appeal to the Mental 19 Health Review Tribunal; and 20 (b) a medical report on the desirability of subsequent detention and 21 treatment of the patient in the interest of public safety is made on each 22 occasion.

Compulsory
Order with Restriction

23 20.-(1) Where the Court receives a report from the medical 24 practitioners referred to in Section 18 to the effect that the mental disorder from 25 which the patient is suffering is of such severity as to warrant maximum 26 restriction of that patient, the Court shall issue a compulsory order with 27 restriction provided that the patient shall be advised on his right to appeal to the 28 Mental Health Review Tribunal of his case.

29 (2) A compulsory order with restriction shall not be issued by a Court 30 unless the Court in its wisdom and having regard to all the circumstances

1 including the nature, character and antecedents of the offender and to the 2 other available options (including terms of imprisonment) of dealing with 3 him that the most suitable method of disposing of the case taking into 4 cognisance the issue of public safety is by means of an order under this 5 section.

6 21.-(1) If in the case of a child or young person brought before a 7 juvenile or other court:

The Child
offender

8 (a) the court is satisfied that the young person is in need of care or 9 protection that his parent or guardian is unable to control him, as the case 10 may; and

11 (b) the conditions which under Section 18 of this Act are required 12 to be satisfied for the making of a hospital order in respect of a person 13 convicted as herein mentioned are so far as applicable, satisfied in the case 14 of the child or young person; the court shall have the like power to make a 15 hospital order or guardian as if the child or young person had been' convicted 16 by the court of an offence punishable on summary conviction with 17 imprisonment and provisions of the said Section 18 shall with the necessary 18 modifications and substitutions apply accordingly.

19 22.-(1) If in the case of a person serving a sentence of 20 imprisonment, the Minister or the Governor, as the case may be is satisfied 21 by the report, of a medical practitioner who has special experience in the 22 diagnosis and treatment of mental and behavioural disorders:

Removal to Hospital of Persons serving Sentence of imprisonment

23 (a) that the said person is suffering from a mental and behavioural 24 disorder, severe mental impairment or dis-social disorder; and 25 (b) that the mental disorder is of a nature or degree which warrants 26 the detention of the patient in a hospital for medical treatment, the Minister 27 or Governor may, if he is of opinion having regard to the public interest and 28 all the circumstances that it is expedient to do so, direct by warrant, that the 29 person be so removed and detained in such hospital as- may be specified in 30 the directive.

1 (2) The transfer directive in the context of Subsection (1) of this 2 section shall have the like force as a hospital order made in accordance with the 3 provisions of Section 18 of this Act.

4 (3) The foregoing provisions of this section shall apply for the 5 purpose of the transfer of any person in custody pending trial as they apply for 6 the purpose of any person serving a sentence of imprisonment.

7 (4) For the purposes of this Section:

8 (a) the Minister shall exercise the power to give a transfer directive in 9 the case of a person convicted of an offence committed under any enactment 10 made by the Government of the Federation; and 11 (b) the Governor shall exercise the power to issue a directive in 12 respect of a person convicted for an offence committed under an enactment 13 made by the Government of a State.

Mental Health
Review Tribunal

14 23.-(1) The Minister may, for the purpose of dealing with applications 15 and reference by and in respect of patient under this Act constitute for each 16 State or group of States, such number of Mental Health Review Tribunals, as he 17 may with the approval of the President determine."

18 (2) Each Mental Health Review Tribunal shall consist of such 19 members as the Minister may by order published in the Gazette decide, which 20 order shall similarly specify the regulation of the proceedings of the Tribunal.

21 (3) The Mental Health Review Tribunal shall function in protecting 22 the interests of patients who are subject to the provisions of this Act. In doing 23 so, it shall review treatments that require a second opinion, visit detained 24 patients and investigate complaints, keep under review the exercise of 25 statutory powers relating to detained patients, and carry out any other function 26 as may be directed by the Minister.

27 PART V - PROPERTY AND AFFAIRS OF PATIENTS

Application of this Part

28 24.-(1) The provisions of this part shall apply in respect of a person, 29 who in the considered opinion of a High Court Judge based on competent 30 medical evidence is incapable by reason of mental disorder of managing and

1 administering his property and affairs; and a person whom the Judge is 2 satisfied to refer to as a patient for purpose of this Part of this Act.

3 25.-(1) The judge may, with respect to the property and affairs of a 4 patient, do or secure the doing of all such things as to him appear necessary 5 or expedient:

General function of the Judge with respect to property

6 (a) for the maintenance or other benefit of the patient;

7 (b) for the maintenance or other benefit of members of the patient's 8 family;

9 (c) for making provision for other persons or purposes for whom or 10 which the patient might be expected to provide if he were not mentally 11 disordered; or

12 (d) otherwise for administering the patient's affairs.

13 (2) (a) In the exercise of the powers conferred by this section, 14 regard shall be had first of all to the requirements of the patient, and the rules 15 of law which restrict the enforcement by a creditor of rights against property 16 under the control of the Judge.

17 (b) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) in this subsection, the 18 Judge shall, in administering a patient's affairs, have regard to the interests 19 of creditors and also the desirability of making provisions for obligations of 20 the patient notwithstanding that they may not be legally enforceable.

21 (3) Without prejudice to the provisions of Subsection (2) of this 22 section; the Judge shall have power to make such orders and give such 23 directions and authorities as he thinks fit, for the purposes of that section and 24 in particular may make orders or give directives or authorities for:

25 (a) the control (with or without the transfer or vesting of property or 26 the payment into court of money or securities) and management of any 27 property of the patients;

28 (b) the settlement of any property of the patient or the gift of any 29 property of the patient to any person;

30 (c) the carrying on by any suitable person of any profession, trade

- 1 or business of the patient;
- 2 (d) the sale, exchange, charging or other disposition of any property
- 3 of the patient;
- 4 (e) the acquisition of any property in the name of the patient;
- 5 (f) the dissolution of any property of which the patient is a member;
- 6 (g) the carrying out of any property of which the patient is a member;
- 7 (h) the conduct of any legal proceedings in the name of the patient or
- 8 on his behalf;
- 9 (i) the reimbursement out of the property of the patient, with or
- 10 without interest, of money applied by any person for or for the benefit of the
- 11 patient; or
- 12 (j) the exercise of any power vested in the patient (including a power
- 13 of consent) whether beneficially or as a guardian, trustee or otherwise however.

Judge's power in case of Emergency

14 J 26. Where it is represented to the Judge and he has reason to believe 15 that a person may be incapable by reason of mental disorder of managing or 16 administering his property and affairs, and the Judge is of opinion that it is 17 necessary to make immediately provision for any of the matters referred to in 18 Section 25 of the Act, the Judge may exercise any of the powers conferred on 19 him by the said Section 25, so far as is requisite for enabling that provision to be 20 made, pending the question whether the said person is incapable as aforesaid.

21 PART VI -TREATMENT

Consent to treatment

22 27.-(1) This part of this Applies to any patient referred to in any 23 section of this Act.

24 (2) The following forms of medical treatment for mental disorder and 25 behavioural disorders shall require consent:

26 (a) any surgical operation for destroying brain tissue or for destroying 27 the function of the brain tissue; and 28 (b) such other forms of treatment requiring explanation of known

29 risks to the patient to enable the patient to decide whether or not to accept such 30 form of treatment.

1 (3) A patient shall not be given any form of treatment unless:

2 (a) the responsible medical officer or a registered medical 3 practitioner has certified in writing that the patient is capable of 4 understanding the nature, purpose any likely effects of the treatment and has 5 consented to it; or

6 (b) the medical officer referred to in paragraph (a) of this 7 subsection certifies in writing that the patient has not consented to the 8 treatment for reason of incapacitation or other, but that having regard to the 9 likelihood of its alleviating or preventing a deterioration of his condition, the 10 treatment should be given.

11 (4) A patient may, at any time before the completion of treatment 12 for which he had previously given consent, withdraw such consent in 13 writing if he so desires.

14 (5) Subsections (2) (a) and (b) of this section shall not apply to any 15 treatment:

16 (a) which is immediately to save 'the patient's life;

17 (b) which (not being irreversible) is immediately necessary .to 18 prevent a deterioration of his condition;

19 (c) which (not being irreversible or hazardous) is immediately 20 necessary to alleviate serious suffering by , the patient; or

21 (d) which (not being irreversible or hazardous) is immediately 22 necessary and represents the minimum interference necessary to prevent the 23 patient from violence or being a danger to himself or to others.

24 (6) In all circumstances the responsible medical officer shall take 25 into account the condition of the patient, the need to obtain consent from the 26 nearest relative, periods of lucid intervals and his/her personal moral 27 decision to obtain consent.

28 PART VII - OFFENCES UNDER THIS ACT

29 28.-(1) Any person Who with intent to deceive, forges or willfully 30 makes false entry or statement in any of the following documents:
