11 (iii) the defendant's conviction for the offence, or all the offences, of 12 which he was convicted are quashed;

13 (b) the Court has made a restraint order under section 57 (1) (a) (ii) of 14 this Act, and the defendant is not charged to Court within such period, as the 15 Court may consider reasonable;

16 (c) a restraint order covers property that is not realizable property 17 including gifts within the meaning of section 75 (3) of this Act;

18 (d) the Court is satisfied that the order was obtained by suppression or 19 misrepresentation of fact or by fraud; and 20 (e) a confiscation order relates to that offence, those offences or 21 related criminal activity and-

22 (i) the confiscation order is satisfied, or 23 (ii) the confiscation order is discharged.

24 (2) The period referred to in subsection (1) (b) of this section shall not 25 exceed ten days, starting on the day on which the restraint order is made.

Making of confiscation orders

26 (3) Restraint orders remain in force until rescinded by the Court.

27 70.-(1) The Court may make a confiscation order requiring a person to 28 pay to the Agency for deposit into the Confiscated and Forfeited Properties 29 Account (in this Act referred to as "the Confiscated and Forfeiture Account") as 30 provided under this Act, an amount equal to the total proceeds of a person's

- 1 criminal activities, where available if-
- 2 (a) the person has been convicted of an offence;
- 3 (b) the relevant organization or the Agency, applies for the
- 4 confiscation order; and
- 5 (c) the Court is satisfied that the person has benefited from-
- 6 (i) that offence,
- 7 (ii) any other offence of which the person has been convicted at the
- 8 same trial, and
- 9 (iii) any criminal activity which the Court finds to be sufficiently
- 10 related to those offences.
- 11 (2) Where a person has been convicted of an offence and the
- 12 relevant organization or the Agency fails to apply for a confiscation order
- 13 under subsection (1) (b) of this section, the Court may, if it-
- 14 (a) considers that it is in the public interest to do so; and
- 15 (b) is satisfied as specified under subsection (1) (c) of this
- 16 subsection,
- 17 direct the Agency to apply for the confiscation order.
- 18 (3) An order made under this section against the person is-
- 19 (a) an order to make a payment to the Agency of any amount that
- 20 the Court considers appropriate; and
- 21 (b) in addition to any punishment that the Court may impose in
- 22 respect of the offence or offences that the person has been found guilty of.
- 23 (4) The Court may make any further orders as it may deem fit to
- 24 ensure the effectiveness and fairness of the confiscation order.
- 25 (5) The amount that the Court may order a convicted person to pay
- 26 to the Agency under subsection (1) shall not exceed-
- 27 (a) the value of the convicted person's proceeds from the offences
- 28 or criminal activity, as determined by the Court, in accordance with the
- 29 provisions of this Act; or
- 30 (b) an amount, which in the Court's opinion may be realized, if the

1 Court is satisfied that the amount which might be realized as contemplated in 2 section 72 (1) of this Act is less than the value referred to in paragraph (a) of this 3 subsection.

4 (6) The Court convicting a person may, when passing sentence, 5 indicate that it will conduct an inquiry at a later date where-

6 (a) it is satisfied that the inquiry will unreasonably delay the 7 proceedings in sentencing the person; or 8 (b) the relevant organization or the Agency applies to the Court to first 9 sentence the convicted person and the Court is satisfied that it is reasonable and 10 justifiable to do so in the circumstances.

11 (7) The relevant organization or the Agency may apply for a
12 confiscation order-

13 (a) within six months after the date of conviction; or 14 (b) where there is an order extending the period specified in paragraph 15 (a) of this subsection, three months after the end of the period extended by an 16 order.

17 (8) The Court hearing an application under subsection (7) of this 18 section may, in exceptional circumstances, grant leave for extension of time for 19 the application to be made, if it is satisfied that it may be in the interests of 20 justice to allow the application.

21 (9) The Court before which proceedings under this section are 22 pending may-

23 (a) in considering an application under subsection (1) of this section-

24 (i) refer to the evidence and proceedings at the trial,

25 (ii) hear such further evidence, as the Court may deem fit,

26 (iii) direct the relevant organization or the Agency to tender to the 27 Court a statement referred to in section 76 (1) of this Act, and 28 (iv) direct a convicted person to tender to the Court the statement 29 referred to in section 76 (5) and (6) of this Act;

30 (b) adjourn proceedings under this section, subject to section 76 (2)

1 and (8) of this Act;

2 (c) set the date of the adjournment in paragraph (b) of this 3 subsection not later than three months from the date at which the hearing 4 was adjourned; and 5 (d) in exceptional circumstances, extend the period referred to in 6 paragraph (c) of this subsection.

7 71.-(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, 8 the value of a defendant's proceeds of criminal activity is the sum of the 9 values of the property, services, advantages, benefits and rewards received, 10 retained or derived by him at any time, whether before or after the 11 commencement of this Act, in connection with the criminal activity carried 12 on by him or any other person connected with the criminal activity.

Value of proceeds of criminal activities

13 (2) In determining the value of a convicted person's proceeds of 14 criminal activities, the Court shall-

15 (a) leave out of account, any property, where the Court has 16 previously made a forfeiture order in respect of the property, which is proved 17 to the satisfaction of the Court to have been the property, which the 18 convicted person received in connection with the criminal activity carried 19 on by him or any other person connected with the criminal activity;

20 (b) where a confiscation order has previously been made against 21 the convicted person, leave out of account those proceeds of criminal 22 activities which are proved to the satisfaction of the Court to have been taken 23 into account in determining the amount to be recovered under that 24 confiscation order; and

25 (c) ensure that the following are deducted-

26 (i) expenses or outgoings that the person incurred in relation to the 27 criminal activity, or

28 (ii) the value of any benefits that the convicted person derives as 29 agent for, or otherwise on behalf of, another person, whether the other

Amounts that may be realized

- 1 person receives any of the benefits.
- 2 72.-(1) The amount realizable at the time of the making of a 3 confiscation order against a convicted person shall be the amount equal to the 4 sum of the values, at that time, of all-
- 5 (a) realizable property held by the convicted person; and 6 (b) affected gifts made by the convicted person, 7 less the sum of all priority obligations, where any, and which the Court may 8 recognize for this purpose.
- 9 (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 74 (1) of this Act but 10 subject to the provisions of section 74 (2) of this Act, the value of an affected 11 gift at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order shall be-
- 12 (a) the value of the affected gift, at the time when the recipient 13 received it, taking into account subsequent fluctuations in the value of money;
14 (b) where subsection (3) of this section applies, the value mentioned 15 in that subsection, whichever is the greater value.
- 16 (3) Where at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order, 17 the recipient holds the property-
- 18 (a) other than cash, which he received, the value concerned shall be 19 the value of the property at that time; and 20 (b) which directly or indirectly represents the property which he 21 received, the value concerned is the value of the property in his custody, in so 22 far as it represents the property, which he received at the time.
- 23 (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, an obligation has 24 priority, at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order, if-
- 25 (a) it is an obligation of the convicted person, where he has been 26 convicted by a court of any offence to pay-
- 27 (i) a fine imposed before that time by the Court, or 28 (ii) any other amount under any resultant order made before that time 29 by the Court;
- 30 (b) it is an obligation, where-

1 (i) the insolvent estate of the convicted person had at that time been 2 made subject to any Court order; or

3 (ii) the convicted person is a company or other juristic person, 4 where the company or juristic person is at that time being wound up, would 5 be payable in pursuance of any secured or preferred claim against the 6 insolvent estate or against such company or juristic person.

7 (5) The Court shall not determine the amounts realizable as 8 contemplated in subsection (1) of this section, unless it has afforded all 9 persons holding any interest in the property concerned an opportunity to 10 make representations to it, in connection with the realization of that 11 property.

12 (6) Where there is no amount that may be realized, the Court may 13 make an order for a nominal amount.

Realizable Property

14 73.-(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, 15 property is realisable under this Part, if the property is-

16 (a) held by the defendant concerned;

17 (b) held by a person to whom that defendant has directly or 18 indirectly made any affected gift; and 19 (c) subject to the effective control of the defendant as provided in 20 section 82 of this Act.

21 (2) Property shall not be realisable property where a forfeiture 22 order is in force in respect of the property.

Value of property

23 74.-(1) For the purpose of this Part, the value of property, other than 24 money, in relation to a person holding the property of a convicted person is,
25 where-

26 (a) any other person holds an interest in the property, the market 27 value of the property less the amount required to discharge any 28 encumbrance on the property; and 29 (b) no other person holds an interest in the property, the market 30 value of the property.

1 (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a 2 reference in this Part to the value at the time of payment or reward, is construed 3 as a reference to-

4 (a) the value of the payment or reward at the time when the recipient 5 received it, as adjusted to take into account subsequent fluctuations in the value 6 of money; or

7 (b) where subsection (3) of this section applies, the value mentioned 8 in that subsection, whichever is greater in value.

9 (3) Where, at the time referred to in subsection (2), the recipient 10 holds-

11 (a) property, other than cash, which he received, the value concerned 12 is the value of the property at that time; or

13 (b) property which directly or indirectly represents the property 14 which he received, the value concerned is the value of the property in his 15 custody, if it represents the property which he received, at the relevant time.

Gifts made by a convicted person

16 75.-(1) For the purposes of this Act, a convicted person shall be 17 deemed to have made a gift, where he has transferred any property to any other 18 person directly or indirectly for a consideration, the value of which is 19 significantly less than the value of the consideration supplied by the convicted 20 person.

21 (2) For the purposes of section 72 (2) of this Act, the gift which a 22 convicted person is deemed to have made shall consist of that share in the 23 property transferred by the convicted person that is equal to the difference 24 between the value of that property as a whole and the consideration received by 25 the convicted person in return.

26 (3) For the purpose of this Part, "affected gift" means any gift made by 27 the convicted person concerned-

28 (a) not more than six years before the prescribed date; or 29 (b) at any time, where it was a gift of property-

30 (i) received by that convicted person in connection with an offence

1 committed, or

2 (ii) any part which directly or indirectly represented in that 3 convicted person's hands property received by him in connection with an 4 offence committed by him or any other person, whether the gift was made 5 before or after the commencement of this Act.

6 (4) For the purpose of this Part, 'prescribed date' in relation to a 7 convicted person means, where-

8 (a) a prosecution for an offence has been instituted against the 9 convicted person, the date on which the prosecution was instituted; or 10 (b) a restraint order has been made against the convicted person, 11 the date of the restraint order, whichever is earlier.

12 76.-(1) The relevant organisation or the Agency, as the case may 13 be, may, or where directed by the Court, tender to the Court a statement in 14 writing under oath or affirmation by a person authorized by the Agency in 15 connection with any matter which is being inquired into by the Court which 16 relates to the determination of the value of a convicted person's proceeds of 17 criminal activities.

Statements relating to proceeds of
criminal activity

18 (2) A copy of the statement referred to in subsection (1) of this 19 section shall be served on the convicted person or his representative, at least 20 14 days before the date on which the statement is to be tendered before the 21 Court.

22 (3) A convicted person may dispute the correctness of an allegation 23 contained in a statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section, and 24 where the convicted person disputes the correctness of the allegation, he 25 shall state the grounds on which he relies.

26 (4) Where a convicted person does not dispute the correctness of 27 any allegation contained in the statement, the allegation is deemed to be 28 conclusive proof of the matter to which it relates.

29 (5) A convicted person may tender before to the Court a statement 30 in writing under oath or affirmation by him or by any other person in

1 connection with any matter that relates to the determination of the amount that 2 might be realised as specified in section 72 (1) of this Act.

3 (6) For the purpose of obtaining information to assist the Court, the 4 Court may, at any time, order the convicted person to give it information 5 specified in the order.

6 (7) An order under subsection (6) of this section may require all or a 7 specified part of the information to be given in a specified manner and before a 8 specified date.

9 (8) A copy of the statement or information referred to in subsection (5) 10 or (6) of this section shall be served on the relevant organisation and the 11 Agency, as the case may be, at least fourteen days before the date on which that 12 statement is to be tendered before the Court.

13 (9) The relevant organisation and the Agency, as the case may be, may 14 admit the correctness of any allegation contained in a statement or information 15 referred to in subsection (5) or (6) of this section, and where the relevant 16 organisation and the Agency, as the case may be, admits the correctness of any 17 allegation contained in such statement, that allegation is deemed to be 18 conclusive proof of the matter to which it relates.

19 (10) Section 77 (1) of this Act does not affect any power of the Court 20 to deal with the convicted person, in respect of a failure to comply with an order 21 under this section.

22 (11) An information given under this section that amounts to an 23 admission by the convicted person that he has benefited from criminal conduct 24 is not admissible in evidence in proceedings for any other offence.

Evidence relating to proceeds of
criminal activity

25 77.-(1) For the purposes of determining whether a convicted person 26 has derived a benefit under section 70 (1) of this Act, where it is found that the 27 defendant did not at the prescribed date, or since the beginning of a period of six 28 years before the prescribed date, have legitimate sources of income sufficient 29 to justify the interests in any property that the convicted person holds, the Court 30 shall accept this fact as prima facie evidence that the interests form part of the 1 benefit.

2 (2) For the purposes of section 70 (1) of this Act, where it is found 3 that the Court had ordered the convicted person to disclose any facts under 4 section 58 (5) or 76 (6) of this Act and that the convicted person had, without 5 sufficient cause, failed to disclose the facts or had, after being so ordered, 6 furnished false information, knowing the information to be false, the Court 7 shall accept those facts as prima facie evidence that any property to which 8 the information relates-

9 (a) forms part of the convicted person's benefit, in determining 10 whether he has derived a benefit from an offence; or 11 (b) is held by the convicted person as an advantage, payment, 12 service or reward in connection with the offences or related criminal 13 activity.

14 (3) For the purpose of determining the value of a convicted 15 person's proceeds of criminal activities in an enquiry under section 71 (1) of 16 this Act, if the Court finds that he -

17 (a) has benefited from an offence and that-

18 (i) he held property at any time at, or since, his conviction, or 19 (ii) the property was transferred to him at any time since the 20 beginning of a period of six years before the prescribed date,

21 the Court shall accept these facts as prima facie evidence that the property 22 was received by him at the earliest time at which he held it, as an advantage, 23 payment, service or reward in connection with the offences or related 24 criminal activities referred to in section 70 (1) of this Act; or 25 (b) has benefited from an offence and that expenditure had been 26 incurred by him since the beginning of the period specified in paragraph (a) 27 of this subsection, the Court shall accept the facts as prima facie evidence 28 that the expenditure was met out of the advantages, payments, services or 29 rewards, including any property received by him in connection with the 30 offences or related criminal activities referred to in section 70 (1) of this Act.

1 (4) For the purpose of determining the value of any property under 2 section 71 (1) of this Act, where the Court finds out that the convicted person 3 received property at any time as an advantage, payment, service, or reward in 4 connection with the offences or related criminal activities referred to in that 5 section, whether committed by him or by any other person, the Court shall 6 accept this fact as prima facie evidence that he received that property free of 7 any other person's interest in it.

8 (5) Where, at the hearing of an application for a confiscation order in 9 relation to an offence concerning a narcotic substance, the value of the narcotic 10 substance is brought into question, an investigating officer from the relevant 11 organisation, who is experienced in the investigation of the specified offence, 12 may testify to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, with respect 13 to-

14 (a) the market value, at the time of the offence, of similar or 15 substantially similar narcotic substances; and 16 (b) the amount that was, or the range of amounts that were, ordinarily 17 paid for the doing of a similar or substantially similar act or thing.

18 (6) Evidence given in subsection (5) of this section is prima facie 19 evidence of the matters testified.

Procedure where a person absconds
or dies

20 78.-(1) The Court may, on the application by the relevant organisation 21 or the Agency, inquire into any benefit the person may have derived from an 22 offence, where it is satisfied that-

23 (a) a person-

24 (i) had been charged with an offence,

25 (ii) had been convicted of any offence,

26 (iii) has had a restraint order made against him, or

27 (iv) can be tried for an offence on the grounds that sufficient evidence 28 exists against him;

29 (b) a warrant for arrest of the person had been issued and that the 30 attendance of that person in Court cannot be secured after all reasonable steps

1 were taken to execute that warrant;

2 (c) the proceedings against the person cannot be resumed within a 3 period of six months due to his continued absence; and 4 (d) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a confiscation order 5 may have been made against him but for his continued absence.

6 (2) Where a defendant, who has been convicted of an offence, dies 7 before a confiscation order is made, the Court may, on the application by the 8 relevant organisation or the Agency, enquire into any benefit the person may 9 have derived from that offence if the Court is satisfied that there are 10 reasonable grounds for believing that a confiscation order would have been 11 made against him, but for his death.

12 (3) The executor of the estate of the deceased is entitled to appear 13 before the Court and make representations for purposes of the enquiry 14 referred to in subsection (2) of this section.

15 (4) The Court in conducting an inquiry under this section may,
16 where-

17 (a) the Court finds that the defendant or deceased referred to in 18 subsections (1) or (2) of this section has so benefited, make a confiscation 19 order, and the provisions of this Part shall, with necessary modifications, 20 apply to the making of the order;

21 (b) an asset manager has not been appointed, in respect of any of 22 the property concerned, direct the Agency to appoint an asset manager in 23 respect of realisable property; and 24 (c) authorise the realisation of the property concerned.

25 (5) The Court shall not exercise its powers under subsection (4)(a) 26 and (c) of this section, except it has afforded a person having any interest in 27 the property concerned an opportunity to make representations to it in 28 connection with the making of any order.

29 (6) The Court in conducting an enquiry under this section shall not 30 apply the provisions of sections 76 and 77 of this Act.

1 (7) Where a person, excluding a person specified in subsection (1)(a) 2 (ii) of this section, against whom a confiscation order had been made under 3 subsection (4) of this section is subsequently tried and-

4 (a) convicted of one or more of the offences in respect of which the 5 order had been made, the Court convicting him may conduct an inquiry under 6 section 71 and make an appropriate order; or 7 (b) acquitted of an offence in respect of which the order had been 8 made, the Court acquitting him may make an appropriate order.

9 (8) The Court may make a determination under section 70 of this Act 10 against a person specified under subsections (1) (a) and (b) of this section who 11 absconded prior to an inquiry under section 71 of this Act, and who is subject to 12 a confiscation order made under subsection (4) of this section where that 13 person is subsequently brought before the Court.

14 (9) The Court making a determination contemplated in subsection (8) 15 of this section shall take into account any order made under subsection (4) of 16 this section.

Reconsideration
of the confiscation
order

17 79.-(1) This section applies, where-

18 (a) the Court has made a confiscation order;

19 (b) there is evidence, which was not available to the relevant 20 organisation or the Agency, at the time of the original confiscation hearing;

21 (c) the relevant organisation or the Agency, believes that if the Court 22 were to determine the amount of the convicted person's benefit in pursuance of 23 this section, it may exceed the amount determined as the defendant's benefit in 24 the original confiscation hearing;

25 (d) notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) (c) of this 26 section, the relevant organisation or the Agency believes that - 27 (i) the amount determined as the convicted person's benefit in the 28 original confiscation hearing is greater than the amount of the confiscation 29 order, and

30 (ii) if the Court were to determine the amount of the convicted

1 person's realisable assets in pursuance of this section, it would exceed the 2 amount determined, as the convicted person's realisable assets in the 3 original confiscation hearing;

4 (e) before the end of the period of six years commencing from the 5 date of conviction, the agency may on its own, apply to the court to 6 reconsider the evidence or where the discovery was made by the relevant 7 organization, it shall notify the Agency, who shall apply to the Court to 8 reconsider the evidence; and 9 (f) after considering the evidence, the Court believes it is 10 appropriate for it to proceed under this section.

11 (2) Where the Court is proceeding under subsection (1) (c) of this 12 section, it shall make a new calculation of the amount in respect of the 13 convicted person's activities mentioned in section 70 (1) (c) of this Act.

14 (3) Where the amount found under the new calculation mentioned 15 in subsection (2) of this section exceeds the amount originally determined, 16 as the convicted person's benefit, the Court-

17 (a) shall make a new calculation of the convicted person's 18 realisable assets for the purposes of section 70 of this Act; and

19 (b) if it exceeds the amount required to be paid under the original 20 confiscation order, may vary the order by substituting for the amount 21 required to be paid by such amount as it deemed fit and proper.

22 (4) Where the court is proceeding under subsection (1) (d) of this 23 section-

24 (a) it shall make a new calculation of the convicted person's 25 realisable assets for the purposes of section 70 of this Act; and 26 (b) if it exceeds the amount required to be paid under the 27 confiscation order, may vary the order by substituting for the amount 28 required to be paid an amount, not exceeding the amount as originally 29 determined within the provisions of section 71 of this Act, as it deemed fit 30 and proper.

1 (5) Section 77 of this Act shall not apply in making a determination
2 under this section.

3 (6) Where a Court applies subsection (2) or (3) of this section, it shall 4 have regard to-

5 (a) any fine imposed on the convicted person for the offence or any of 6 the offences concerned; and 7 (b) any other order made under this Act.

8 (7) In making a decision under this section, the Court shall, where one 9 amount exceeds another, take account of any variation in the value of money.

Enforcement of
confiscation orders

10 80.-(1) An amount payable by a person to the Agency under a 11 confiscation order is a civil debt due by the person to the Federal Government.

12 (2) A confiscation order against a person may be enforced, as if it were 13 an order made in civil proceedings instituted by the Agency against a person to 14 recover a debt due by that person to the Federal Government.

15 (3) A debt arising from the order is deemed to be a judgement debt.

16 (4) Where a confiscation order is made against a person after his 17 death, this section shall have effect, as if the person had died on the day after the 18 order was made.

19 (5) Where a person fails to satisfy any or part of a confiscation order 20 made by the Court, the Court may order that the person against whom the order 21 was made be committed to prison in addition to any other sentence prescribed 22 under this Act.

23 (6) The period of imprisonment referred to under subsection (5) of 24 this section shall be as prescribed in the Schedule to this Act.

25 (7) An order to pay an amount under a confiscation order is due to be 26 paid on the day that the confiscation order is made.

27 (8) The Court making the order may, on the application by the 28 convicted person, grant a period of time to pay the amount under the 29 confiscation order.

30 (9) The period of time referred to in subsection (8) of this section shall 1 not exceed six (6) months from the date the order is made.

2 (10) The Court making the order may, having regard to the special 3 circumstances of the case, extend the period referred to in subsection (9) of 4 this section by a further six months.

5 (11) Where the convicted person intends to apply to the Court for 6 an extension of the type referred to in subsection (8) of this section, he shall 7 notify the Agency, in writing, at least fourteen days prior to the application.

8 (12) The Agency may appear and adduce evidence at a hearing 9 under subsection (8) of this section.

10 (13) Any sentence of imprisonment imposed under subsection (5) 11 of this section shall be served consecutively with any other sentence of 12 imprisonment imposed, whether as a result of the proceedings in connection 13 with which the confiscation order was made or any other proceedings.

Variation of
confiscation order

14 81.-(1) Where the Court has made a confiscation order, the Agency 15 or the convicted person may apply to the Court to vary the order under this 16 section.
