(d) provide for the discipline and welfare of members of the University;

(e) hold examinations and grant degrees, diplomas, certificates and other distinctions to persons who have pursued a course of study approved by the University and have satisfied such other requirements as the University may lay down;

(f) grant honorary degrees, fellowships or academic titles;

(g) demand and receive from any student or any other person attending the University for the purpose of instruction such fees as the University may determine subject to the overall directives of the Minister;

(h) subject to section 23 of this Bill, to acquire, hold, grant, charge or otherwise deal with or dispose of movable and immovable property wherever situate;

(i) accept gifts, legacies and donations, but without obligation to accept the same for a particular purpose unless it approves the terms and conditions attaching thereto;

(j) enter into contracts, establish trusts, act as trustee, solely or jointly with any other person, and employ and act through agents;

(k) erect, provide, equip and maintain libraries, laboratories, lecture halls, halls of residence, refectories, sports grounds, playing fields and other buildings or things necessary or suitable or convenient for any of the objects of the University;

(l) hold public lectures and to undertake printing, publishing and book-selling;

(m) subject to any limitations on conditions imposed by statute, to invest any money appertaining to the University by way of endowment, not being immediately required for current expenditure, in any investments or securities or the purchase or improvement of land, with power to vary any such investments and to deposit any money for the time being not invested with any bank on deposit or current account;

(n) borrow, whether on interest or not if need be upon the security of any or all of the property, movable or immovable, of the University, such moneys as the Council may in its discretion find it necessary or expedient to borrow or to guarantee any loan, advances or credit facilities;

(o) do anything which it is authorised or required by this Bill or Statute to do; and

(p) do all such acts or things, incidental to the foregoing powers, as may advance the objects of the University.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Bill and of the Statute and without prejudice to section 9 (2) of this Bill, the powers conferred on the University by subsection (1) shall be exercisable on behalf of the University by the Council or by the Senate or in any other manner, which may be authorised by statute.

(3) The power of the University to establish further campuses and colleges within the University shall be exercisable by statute and not otherwise.

5. (1) The Chancellor shall, in relation to the University, take precedence before all other members of the University and when he is present shall preside at all meetings of Convocation held for conferring degree certificates and other awards of the University.

Functions of the Chancellor

(2) Every proposal to confer an honorary degree shall be subject to the confirmation of the Chancellor.

(3) The Chancellor shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be conferred or imposed on him by this Bill.

6. (1) The Pro-Chancellor shall, in relation to the University, take precedence before all other members of the University, except the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor when acting as Chairman of Congregation or Convocation and the Pro-Chancellor shall, when he is present, be the Chairman at all meetings of the Council.

Functions of the Pro-Chancellor

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Bill, the Pro-Chancellor shall hold office for a period of four years beginning with the date of his appointment.

7. There is established for the University a Governing Council (in this Bill referred to as "the Council") which shall consist of —

Establishment of the Council

(a) the Pro-Chancellor;

(b) the Vice-Chancellor;

(c) the Deputy Vice-Chancellors;

(d) one person from the Federal Ministry responsible for education;

(e) four persons representing a variety of interests and broadly representative of the whole Federation to be appointed by the President;

(f) four persons appointed by the Senate from among its members;

(g) two persons appointed by the Congregation from among its members; and

(h) one person appointed by Convocation from among its members.

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Bill relating to the Visitor, the Council shall be the governing body of the University and shall be charged with the general control and superintendence of the policy, finance and property of the University.

Functions of the council and its finance and general purposes committee

(2) There shall be a committee of the Council to be known as the Finance and General Purposes Committee, which shall, subject to the directions of the Council, exercise control over the property and expenditure of the University and perform such other functions of the Council as the Council may delegate to it.

(3) Provision shall be made by statute with respect to the constitution of the Finance and General Purposes Committee.

(4) The Council shall ensure that proper accounts of the University are kept and that the accounts of the University are audited annually by an independent firm of auditors approved by the Council, and that an annual report shall be published by the University together with certified copies of the said accounts as audited.

(5) Subject to provisions of this Bill, the Council and the Finance and General Purposes Committee may each make rules for regulating their own procedure.

(6) Rules made under subsection (5) by the Finance and General Purposes Committee shall not come into force unless approved by the Council and where rules made by that Committee conflict with any directions given by the Council, whether before or after the coming into force of the rules in question, the direction of the Council shall prevail.

(7) There shall be paid to the members of the Council, the Finance and General Purposes Committee respectively and of any other committee set up by the Council an allowance in respect of travelling and other reasonable expenses, at such rates as may be fixed by the Minister.

(8) The Council shall meet as and when necessary for the performance of its functions under this Bill and shall meet at least three times in every year.

(9) If requested in writing by any five members of the Council the Chairman shall within 28 days after the receipt of such request call a meeting of the Council.

(10) Any request made under subsection (9) shall specify the business to be considered at the meeting and a business not so specified shall not be transacted at the meeting.

9. (1) Subject to section 8 of this Bill and subsections (3) and (4) and to the provisions of this Bill relating to the Visitor, it shall be the general function of the Senate to organise and control the teaching by the University, the admission, (where no other enactment provides to the contrary, of students) and the discipline of students, and to promote research at the University.

Functions of the Senate

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), it shall be the function of the Senate to make provision for —

(a) the establishment and organisation and control of campuses, colleges, schools, institutes and other teaching and research units of the University and allocation of responsibility for different branches of learning;

(b) the organisation and control of courses of study in the University and of the examinations held in conjunction with those courses, including the appointment of examiners, both internal and external;

(c) the award of degrees, and such other qualifications as may be prescribed, in connection with examinations held as aforesaid;

(d) the making of recommendations to the Council with respect to the award to any person of an honorary fellowship, degree or the title of professor emeritus;

(e) the establishment, organisation and control of halls of residence and similar institutions at the University;

(f) the supervision of the welfare of students at the University and the regulation of their conduct;

(g) the granting of fellowships, scholarships, prizes and similar awards if the awards are within the control of the University; and

(h) determining what description of dress shall be academic dress for the purposes of the University, and regulating the use of academic dress.

(3) The Senate shall not establish any new campus, college, school, department, institute or other teaching and research units of the University without the approval of the Council.

(4) Subject to this Bill and statutes, the Senate may make regulations for the purpose of exercising any function conferred on it either by the foregoing provisions of this section or otherwise or for the purpose of making provisions for any matter for which provision by regulations is authorised or required by this Bill or Statute.

(5) Regulations shall provide that at least one of the persons appointed as the examiners at each final or professional examination held in conjunction with any course of study at the University, as may be prescribed by the Senate, is not a teacher at the University but is a teacher of the branch of learning to which the course relates at some other university of high repute or a person engaged in practicing the profession in a reputable organisation or institution.

(6) Subject to a right of appeal to the Council from a decision of the Senate under this subsection, the Senate may deprive any person of any degree, diploma or other award of the University which has been conferred upon him if after due enquiry he is shown to have been guilty of dishonorable or scandalous conduct in gaining admission into the University or obtaining that award.

10. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall, in relation to the University, take precedence before all other members of the University, except the Chancellor, and any other person for the time being acting as Chairman of the Council.

Functions of the Vice-Chancellor

(2) Subject to sections 8, 9, and 16 of this Bill, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the general function, in addition to any other functions conferred on him by this Bill or otherwise, of directing the activities of the University and shall be the chief executive and academic officer of the University and ex-officio chairman of the Senate.

11. (1) All property held by or on behalf of the University shall, by virtue of this subsection and without further assurance, vest in the University and be held by it for the purposes of the University.

Transfer of property to the University

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1), all property held on behalf of the University is transferred to the University established under this Bill.

Second Schedule.

(3) The provisions of the Second Schedule to this Bill shall have effect with respect to matters arising from the transfer of property by this section and with respect to the other matters mentioned in that Schedule.

12. (1) Subject to this Bill, the University may make statutes for —

Powers of the University to make statutes

(a) making provision with respect to the composition and constitution of any authority of the University;

(b) specifying and regulating the powers and duties of any authority of the University and regulating any other matter connected with the University or any of its authorities;

(c) regulating the admission of students, where no other enactment provides to the contrary, and their discipline and welfare;

(d) determining whether any particular matter is to be treated as an academic or non-academic matter for the purposes of this Bill and of any statute, regulation or other instrument made there under; and

(e) making provision for any other matter for which provision by statute is authorised or required by this Bill.

(2) Subject to section 14 of this Bill, the Interpretation Act shall apply in relation to any statute made under this section as it applies to a subsidiary instrument within the meaning of section 29 (1) of that Act.

Third Schedule.

(3) The Statute contained in the Third Schedule to this Bill shall be deemed to have come into force on the commencement of this Bill and shall be deemed to have been made under this section by the University.

(4) The power to make statutes conferred by this section shall not be prejudiced or limited in any way by reason of the inclusion or omission of any matter in or from the Statute contained in the Third Schedule to this Bill or any subsequent statute.

13. (1) The power of the University to make statutes shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this section and not otherwise.

Mode of exercising power to make statutes

(2) A proposed statute shall not become law unless it has been approved —

(a) at a meeting of the Senate, by the votes of not less than two thirds of the members present and voting; and

(b) at a meeting of the Council, by the votes of not less than two thirds of the members present and voting.

(3) A proposed statute may originate either in the Senate or in the Council, and may be approved as required by subsection (2) by either one of those bodies before the other.

(4) A statute which makes provision for or alters the composition or constitution of the Council, the Senate or any other authority of the University shall not come into operation unless it has been approved by the President in consultation with the National Universities Commission.

(5) For the purposes of section 1 (2) of the Interpretation Act, a statute shall be treated as being made on the date on which it is duly approved by the Council after having been approved by the Senate, as the case may be or, in the case of a statute falling within subsection (4), on the date on which it is approved by the President.

(6) In the event of any doubt or dispute arising at any time —

(a) as to the meaning of any provision of a statute; or

(b) as to whether any matter is for the purpose of this Bill an academic matter as they relate to such doubt or dispute, the matter may be referred to the Visitor, who shall take such advice and make such decision therein as he shall think fit.

Cap. C23, LFN, 2004.

(7) The decision of the Visitor on any matter referred to him under subsection (6) shall be final and binding upon the authorities; staff and students of the University.

(8) Nothing in subsection (7) shall affect any power of a court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether any provision of a statute is wholly or partially void as being ultra vires or as being inconsistent with the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999.

14. A statute may be proved in any court by the production of a copy thereto bearing or affixed to it a certificate purporting to be signed by the Vice-Chancellor or the Secretary to the Council to the effect that the copy is a true copy of a statute of the University. Proof of statutes
15. (1) The President shall be the Visitor of the University. The Visitor
- (2) The Visitor shall as often as the circumstances may require, not being less than once every five years, conduct a visitation of the University or direct that such a visitation be conducted by such person or persons as the Visitor may deem fit and in respect of any of the affairs of the University.
- (3) The bodies and persons comprising the University shall make available to the Visitor and to any other person conducting a visitation under this section, such facilities and assistance as he or they may reasonably require for the purposes of a visitation.
16. (1) If it appears to the Council that a member of the Council, other than the Pro-Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor, should be removed from office on the ground of misconduct or inability to perform the functions of his office or employment, the Council shall make a recommendation to that effect through the Minister to the President after making such enquiry, if any, as may be considered appropriate, and if the President approves the recommendation he may direct the removal of the person in question from office. Removal of certain members of Council
- (2) The Minister shall cause a copy of the instrument embodying a direction under subsection (1) to be served immediately on the person to whom it relates.
17. (1) If it appears to the Council that there are reasons for believing that any person employed as a member of the academic, administrative or professional staff of the University, other than Vice-Chancellor, should be removed from his office or employment on the ground of misconduct or of inability to perform the functions of his office or employment, the Council shall — Removal and discipline of academic, administrative and professional staff
- (a) give notice of those reasons to the person in question, afford him an opportunity of making representations in person on the matter,
- (b) appoint a Staff Disciplinary Committee, and
- (c) if the Council, after considering the report of the Staff Disciplinary Committee, is satisfied that the person in question should be removed, the Council may so remove him by an instrument in writing signed on the directions of the Council.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor may, in case of misconduct by a member of staff, which in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor is prejudicial to the interests of the University, suspend such member and any such suspension shall immediately be reported to the Council.

(3) For good cause, any member of staff may be suspended from his duties or his appointment may be terminated by the Council, and for the purpose of this subsection "good cause" means —

(a) conviction for any offence which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit for the discharge of the functions of his office;

(b) any physical or mental incapacity which the Council, after obtaining medical advice, considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office;

(c) conduct of a scandalous or other disgraceful nature which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office;

(d) conduct which the Council considers to be such as to constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to discharge the functions of his office or to comply with terms and conditions of his service; or

(e) conduct which the Council considers to be generally of such nature as to render the continued appointment or service of the person concerned prejudicial or detrimental to the interest of the University.

(4) Any person suspended under subsections (2) or (3) shall be on half pay and the Council shall before the expiration of a period of three months after the date of such suspension consider the case against that person and come to a decision as whether to —

(a) continue such person's suspension and if so on what terms, including the proportion of his emoluments to be paid to him;

(b) re-instate such person in which case the Council shall restore his full emoluments with effect from the date of suspension; or

(c) terminate the appointment of the person concerned in which case such person shall not be entitled to the proportion of his emoluments withheld during the period of suspension; or

(d) take such lesser disciplinary action against such person, including the restoration of such proportion of his emoluments as might have been withheld, as the Council may determine.

(5) Where the Council, under this section, decides to continue a person's suspension or decides to take further disciplinary action against a person, the Council shall before the expiration of a period of three months from such decision come to a final determination in respect of the case concerning such person.

(6) The person by whom an instrument of removal is signed under subsection (1) shall cause a copy of the instrument to be served immediately on the person to whom it relates.

(7) Nothing in the provisions of this section shall —

(a) apply to any directive given by the Visitor in consequence of any visitation; or

(b) prevent the Council from making regulations for the discipline of other categories of workers of the University as may be prescribed.

18. (1) The Vice-Chancellor or Senate shall constitute an Investigation Panel to determine whether or not a prima facie case has been established against any member of staff.

Procedures for staff discipline

(2) The Investigation Panel shall include the president or the chairman of the union to which the staff being investigated belongs.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall constitute a Staff Disciplinary Committee, which shall consist of such members of the Senate as he may determine, to consider the report of the Investigating Panel.

(4) The report and recommendation of the Staff Disciplinary Committee shall be forwarded to the Council for consideration and decision.

19. Subject to the regulations made under this Bill, the Vice-Chancellor may on the recommendation of the Senate, appoint an appropriate person as external examiner.

Appointment of external examiners

20. (1) If on the recommendation of the Senate, it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that a person appointed as an examiner for any examination of the University ought to be re-moved from office or appointment, then except in such cases as may be prescribed, the Vice-Chancellor may, after affording the examiner an opportunity of making representations in person on the matter to the Vice-Chancellor, remove the examiner from the office or appointment by an instrument in writing signed by the Vice-Chancellor.

Removal of examiners

(2) Subject to the provisions of regulations made under section 9 (5) of this Bill, the Vice-Chancellor may, on the recommendation of the Senate, appoint an appropriate person as examiner in place of the examiner removed under subsection (1).

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall sign an instrument of removal under this section and cause a copy of this instrument to be served immediately on the person to whom it relates.

21. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that any student of the University has been guilty of misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor may, in consultation with the Senate and, without prejudice to any other disciplinary power conferred on him by statutes or regulations, direct that —

Discipline of students

(a) the student shall not, during such period as may be specified in the direction, participate in such activities of the University, or make use of such facilities of the University, as may be so specified;

(b) the activities of the student shall, during such period as may be specified in the direction, be restricted in such manner as may be so specified;

(c) the student be rusticated for such period as may be specified in the direction; or

(d) the student be expelled from the University.

(2) Where a direction is given under subsection (1) (c) or (d) in respect of any student, that student may, within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, appeal to the Council, and where such an appeal is brought, the Council shall after causing such inquiry to be made in the matter as the Council considers just, confirm, set aside the direction or modify it in such manner as the Council deems fit.

(3) The fact that an appeal from a direction is brought under subsection (2) shall not affect the operation of the direction while the appeal is pending.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor may delegate his powers under this section to a disciplinary committee consisting of such members of the university as he may appoint.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the restriction or termination of a student's activities at the University otherwise than on the ground of misconduct.

(6) Without prejudice to the provision of subsection (1), nothing shall prevent the Vice-Chancellor from taking an immediate disciplinary action against a student where he deems fit, and report thereafter to the Senate.

(7) A direction under subsection (1) (a) may be combined with a direction under subsection (1) (b).

Cap. C23, LFN, 2004.

(8) No staff or student shall resort to a law court without proof of having exhausted the avenues for settling disputes, grievances or seeking redress.

9) The Visitor shall be the final arbiter on staff and student discipline, and his decision shall not be contestable in any court of law in Nigeria.

(10) Nothing in this subsection shall affect any power of a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the fundamental right of any aggrieved citizen as enshrined in the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999.

22. (1) No person shall be required to satisfy the requirements as to race, including ethnic grounding, sex, place of birth, family origin, religious or political persuasion, as a condition of becoming or continuing to be a student at the University, the holder of any degree of the University or of any appointment or employment at the University or a member of anybody established by virtue of this Bill, and no person shall be subjected to any disadvantage or accorded any advantage in relation to the University, by reference to any of those matters.
- Exclusion of discrimination on account of race, religion
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be construed as preventing the University from imposing any disability or restriction on a person where such person willfully refuses or fails on grounds of religious belief to undertake any duty generally and uniformly imposed on all such persons or any group of them which duty, having regard to its nature and the special circumstance, is in the opinion of the University reasonably justifiable in the national interest.
23. Without prejudice to the provisions of the Land Use Act, the University shall not dispose of or charge any land or an interest in any land, including any land transferred to the University by this Bill, except with the prior written consent either general or special, of the President:
- Restriction on disposal of land by University. Cap L5, LFN, 2004
- Provided that such consent shall not be required in the case of any lease or tenancy at a rack-rent for a term not exceeding 21 years or lease or tenancy to a member of the University for residential purposes.
24. Except as may be provided by statutes or regulations, the quorum and procedure of any body of persons established by this Bill shall be as determined by that body.
- Quorum and procedure of bodies established by this Bill
25. (1) A body of persons established by this Bill shall, without prejudice to the generality of the powers of that body, have power to appoint committees, which need not consist exclusively of members of that body and to authorize a committee established by it to —
- Appointment of committees

(a) exercise, on its behalf, such of its functions as it may determine; and

(b) Co-opt members, and may direct whether or not co-opted members, if any, shall be entitled to vote in that committee.

(2) Two or more bodies may arrange for the holding of joint meetings of those bodies or for the appointment of committees consisting of members of those bodies or any of them and either of dealing with it or of reporting on it to those bodies or any of them.

(3) Except as may be provided by statutes or by regulations, the quorum and procedure of a committee established or meeting held under this section shall be as determined by the body or bodies which have decided to establish the committee or hold the meeting.

(4) Nothing in the provisions of this section shall be construed as enabling —

(a) statutes to be made otherwise than in accordance with section 13 of this Bill; or

(b) the Senate to empower any other body to make regulations or to award degrees or other qualifications.

(5) The Pro-Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor shall be members of every committee of which the members are wholly or partly appointed by the Council, other than a committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of any officer in question, and the Vice-Chancellor shall be a member of the Council and the Vice-Chancellor shall be a member of every committee of which the members are wholly or partly appointed by the Senate.

26. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Pension Reform Act, the compulsory retirement age of an academic staff of a University shall be 65 years except for those in the professorial cadre which is 70 years.

Retiring age of academic staff of the University Act No. 4, 2014

(2) A law or rule requiring a person to retire from the public service of the Federation after serving for 35 years shall not apply to an academic staff of the University.

27. (1) A person who retires as a professor having served as an academic staff in a recognised University shall be entitled to pension at a rate equivalent to his annual salary provided that the professor has served continuously in a recognized University up to retirement age.

Special provisions relating to pension of Professors

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where the professor has not served up to retirement age he shall be entitled to the rate of pension mentioned under subsection (1) provided that he has served a minimum of 20 years as professor in a recognised University.

(3) Where an academic joins the University as a professor, such a professor shall have served continuously for at least 20 years in a recognised University.

28. (1) The seal of the University shall be such as may be determined by the Council and approved by the Chancellor, and the affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by any member of the Council and by the Vice-Chancellor, Secretary to the Council or any other person authorized by statute.

Miscellaneous administrative provisions

(2) Any document purporting to be a document executed under the seal of the University shall be received in evidence and shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to be so executed.

(3) Any contract or instrument which if made or executed by a person not being a body corporate would not be required to be under seal, may be made or executed on behalf of the University by any person generally or specially authorized to do so by the Council.

(4) The validity of proceedings of any body established under this Bill shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the body, or by any defect in the appointment of a member of the body or by reason that any person not entitled to do so took part in the proceeding.

(5) Any member of a body who has a personal interest in any matter proposed to be considered by that body shall immediately disclose his interest to the body and shall not vote on any question relating to that matter.

Cap. 123, LFN, 2004.
