[2] The provisions of the Second Schedule to this Bill shall have effect with respect to, and to matters arising from, the transfer of property by this Clause and with respect to the other matters mentioned in that Schedule.

PART II –
STATUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY

1: [1] Subject to this Bill, the University may make Statutes for any of the following purposes– that is to say- Statutes of the University.

[a] making provision with respect to the composition and constitution of any authority of the University;

[b] specifying and regulating the powers and duties of any authority of the University, and regulating any other matter connected with the University or any of its authorities;

[c] regulating the admission of students where it is done by the University, and their discipline and welfare;

[d] determining whether any particular matter is to be treated as an academic or non-academic matter for the purposes of this Bill and of any Statute, regulation or other instrument made there-under; and

[e] making provision for other matters for which provision by Statute is authorized or required by this Bill.

[2] Subject to Clause 24 [6] of this Bill, the Interpretation Act shall apply in relation to any Statute made under this Clause as it applies to a subsidiary instrument within the meaning of Clause 27 [1] of this Bill.

[3] The Statute contained in the Third Schedule to this Bill shall be deemed to have come into force on the commencement of this Bill and shall be deemed to have been made under this Clause by the University.

[4] The power to make Statute conferred by this Clause shall not be prejudiced or limited in any way by reason of the inclusion or omission of any matter in or from the Statute contained in the Second Schedule to this Bill.

13 [1] The power of the University to make Statutes shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this Clause.

Mode of exercising power to make statutes

[2] A proposed Statute shall not have the force of law until it has been approved at a meeting of the—

[a] Senate, by the votes of not less than two thirds of the members present and voting; and

[b] Council by the votes of not less than two thirds of the members present and voting.

[3] A proposed Statute may originate either in the Senate or Council, and may be approved as required by sub- Clause [2] of this Clause by both bodies in no particular order.

[4] A Statute which—

[a] makes provision for or alters the composition or constitution of the Council, the Senate or any other authority of the University; or

[b] provides for the establishment of a new campus or college or for the amendment or revocation of any Statute whereby a campus or college is established, shall not come into operation unless it has been approved by the Visitor.

[5] For the purpose of Clause 2 [2] of the Interpretation Act, Statute shall be treated as being made on the date on which it is approved by the Council and the Senate in accordance with subClause [3] of this Clause or in the case of a Statute falling within subClause [4] of this Clause, on the date on which it is approved by the President.

14 A Statute may be proved in any court by the production of a copy thereof bearing or having affixed to it a certificate signed by the Vice Chancellor or the Registrar to the effect that the copy is a true copy of a Statute of that Institute.

Proof of Statute

15 [1] In the event of any doubt or dispute arising at any time as to the meaning of any provision of a Statute, the matter may be referred to the Visitor, who shall take such advice and make such decision thereon as he deems fit.

Power of Visitor to decide meaning of statutes

[2] The decision of the Visitor on any matter referred to him under this s Clause shall be binding upon the authorities, staff and students of the University and where any question as to the meaning of any provision of a Statute has been decided by the Visitor under this Clause, no question as to the meaning of that provision shall be entertained by any other authority in Nigeria, provided that nothing in this sub-clause shall affect the power of a court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether any provision of a Statute is wholly or partly void as being ultra vires or as being inconsistent with the Constitution.

[3] The provisions of this Clause shall apply in relation to any doubt or dispute as to whether any matter is, for the purposes of this Bill, an academic or non-academic matter as they apply in relation to any such doubt or dispute as is mentioned in sub-clause [1] of this Clause, and accordingly the reference in sub-clause [2] of this Clause to any question as to the meaning of any provision of the Statute shall include references to any question as to whether any matter is for the said purposes an academic or Proof of Statute in court Visitor's decision in case of dispute in academic or non-academic matter.

PART III –
SUPERVISION AND DISCIPLINE

16 [1] The President shall be the Visitor of the University.

The Visitor

[2] The Visitor shall, as often as the circumstances may require not being less than once every five years, conduct a visitation of the University or direct that such a visitation be conducted by such persons as the Visitor may deem fit and in respect of any of the affairs of the University.

[3] The bodies and persons comprising the University Shall–

[a] make available to the Visitor, and to any other persons conducting a visitation in pursuance of this Clause, such facilities and assistance as he or they may reasonably require for the purpose of the visitation; and;

[b] give effect to any instruction consistent with the provisions of this Bill which may be given by the Visitor in consequence of the visitation.

17 [1] If it appears to the Council that a member [other than Pro-Chancellor or the Vice Chancellor] should be removed from office on grounds of misconduct or inability to perform the functions of his office, the Council shall make a recommendation to that effect through the Minister to the Federal Executive Council and if the Federal Executive Council, after making such enquiries [if any] as may be considered necessary, approves the recommendation, it may direct the removal of the member from office.

Removal of certain members of Council

[2] The Minister shall use his best endeavors to cause a copy of the instrument embodying a direction under sub-clause [1] of this Clause to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates.

18 [1] If it appears to the Council that there are reasons for believing that any person employed as a member of the academic, administrative or professional staff of the University, other than the Vice Chancellor, should be removed from office or on grounds of misconduct or inability to perform the

Removal and discipline of academic, administrative functions of his office Council shall—

[a] give notice of those reasons to the person in question;

[b] afford such person an opportunity of making representation on the matter to the Council; and

[c] take a decision to terminate or not to terminate the appointment.

[2] If the affected staff or any three members of the Council so request within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the notice of the Council's decision, the Council shall make arrangements for—

[a] a joint committee of the Council and the Senate to review the matter and to report on it to the Council;

[b] the person in question to be afforded an opportunity to appear before and be heard by an investigating committee with respect to the matter; and if the Council after considering the report of the investigating committee is satisfied that the person in question should be removed, the Council may so remove him by an instrument in writing signed on the directions of the Council.

[3] The Vice Chancellor may, in a case of gross misconduct by a member of staff which in the opinion of the Vice Chancellor is prejudicial to the interest of the University, suspend such member and any such suspension shall immediately be reported to the Council.

[4] Any member of staff may be suspended from duty or his appointment may be terminated by Council for a good cause and, for the purposes of this sub-clause, "good cause" means— [a] conviction for any offence which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit for the discharge of the functions of his office;

[b] any physical or mental incapacity which the Council, after obtaining medical advice, considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold office;

[c] conduct of a scandalous or disgraceful nature which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold office; or

[d] conduct which the Council considers to be such as to constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to discharge the functions of his office or to comply with the terms and conditions of his service.

[5] Any person suspended under sub-clause [3] of this Clause shall be on half pay and the Council shall, before the expiration of a period of three months from the date of such suspension, consider the case against that person and come to a decision as to whether to—

[a] continue such person's suspension and if so on what terms [including the proportion of his emoluments to be paid to him];

[b] reinstate such person in which case the Council shall restore his full emoluments with effect from the date of suspension;

[c] terminate the appointment of the person concerned in which case such a person will not be entitled to the proportion of his emoluments withheld during the period of suspension; and

[d] take such lesser disciplinary action against such person [including the restoration of such proportion of his emoluments that might have been withheld] as the Council may determine.

[6] Where the Council, pursuant to this Clause, decides to continue a person's suspension or decides to take further disciplinary action against the person, the Council shall, before the expiration of three months from such decision, come to a final determination in respect of the case concerning such a person.

[7] The person by whom an instrument of removal is signed in pursuance of sub-clause [1] of this Clause shall use his best endeavors' to cause a copy of the instrument to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates.

[8] Nothing in this Clause shall prevent the Council from making regulations for the discipline of staff and workers of the University as may be appropriate.

1: [1] If, on the recommendation of the Vice Chancellor or, if an examiner appears to the Senate that a person appointed as an examiner for any examination of the University ought to be removed from his office or appointment, then, the Senate may, after affording the examiner an opportunity of making representations in person on the matter, direct the Vice Chancellor to remove the examiner by an instrument in writing signed by the Registrar.

Removal of Examiners.

[2] Subject to the provisions of any regulation made under this Bill, the Vice Chancellor may, on the recommendation of Senate, appoint an appropriate person as examiner in the place of the examiner removed.

[3] The Registrar shall on signing an instrument of removal under this Clause, use his best endeavors to cause a copy of the instrument to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates.

2([1] Subject to the provisions of this Clause, where it appears to the Vice Chancellor that any student is guilty of misconduct, the Vice Chancellor may, without prejudice to any other disciplinary powers conferred on him by Statute or regulations, direct that the—

[a] student shall not, during such period as may be specified in the direction, participate in such activities of the University or make use of such facilities of the University as may be so specified;

[b] activities of the student shall, during such period as may be specified in the direction, be restricted in such manner as may be so specified;

[c] student be rusticated for such period as may be specified in the direction; or

[d] student be expelled from the University.

[2] Where a direction is given under sub-clause [1] [c] or [d] of this Clause in respect of any student, the student may, within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, appeal against the direction to the Senate.

Where an appeal is brought under sub-clause [2] of this Clause, the Senate shall, after causing such inquiry to be made in the matter as the Senate considers just, either confirm or set aside the direction or modify it in such manner as the Senate thinks fit.

[3] The fact that an appeal from a direction is brought under sub-clause [2] of this Clause shall not affect the operation of the direction while the appeal is pending.

[4] The Vice Chancellor may delegate his powers under this Clause to a disciplinary board consisting of such members of the University as he may nominate.

[5] Nothing in this Clause shall be construed as preventing the restriction or termination of a student's activities at the University for conduct which in the opinion of the Senate is prejudicial to the interest of the University or to its corporate objective or image.

[6] A direction under sub-clause [1] [a] of this Clause may be combined with a direction under sub-clause [1] [b] of this Clause.
