- (4) In all terrorist and proliferation financing investigations, regardless of whether the act has been completed or not, the relevant agency shall request from the Nigerian Financial Intelligence Unit (in this Bill referred to as ‘the Unit’) in writing, any information that may assist in the tracing of all funds or properties in or outside Nigeria that may be directly or indirectly linked to a suspected terrorist, terrorist group, or entity, or other suspected person.

79. (1) A relevant agency shall apply ex-parte to the Court for an Order to seize fund or property of a person arrested for an offence under this Bill, where it has reasonable grounds to suspect that the fund or property –

(a) is intended to be used for the purpose of committing an act of terrorism or other acts of violence under this Bill;

(b) belongs to or is held in trust for a terrorist group or specified entity; or

(c) is or represents property or part of property obtained through acts directly or indirectly linked to terrorism.

(2) A relevant agency may seize fund or property where –

(a) the seizure is incidental to an arrest or search; or

(b) the fund or property is liable to forfeiture upon an order made by the Court following an application by the relevant agency.

(3) A relevant agency may, in the interest of public order, defence and national security, exercise its powers under subsection (1) of this section, whether or not any proceeding has been brought for an offence in connection with the fund or property.

(4) The Court shall not make a detention or attachment order of any fund or property seized in accordance with the provisions of this section, unless the Court is satisfied that reasonable grounds exist for suspecting that the fund or property –

(a) is derived from an act of terrorism, or is being used or is intended to be used for the purposes of terrorism;

(b) consists of resources of a terrorist, terrorist group or specified entity;

(c) is or represents property or part of a property obtained directly or indirectly through terrorist activities;

(d) is being used or intended to be used in committing acts of violence or other offences under this Bill; or

(e) is being used or intended to be used in financing the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction.

(5) Subject to subsection (7) of this section, any order made under subsection (4) of this section shall remain valid for a period of ninety days and may be renewed for a further period of ninety days or until the production of the suspected fund or property before the court.

(6) Any fund or property, and other proceeds from the fund or property seized under this section shall be deposited by a relevant agency in an interest-bearing account.

(7) Fund with the interest may be released to the owner by an order of the Court, where proceedings are not brought in connection with the seized fund.

(8) Whenever property is seized under any of the provisions of this Bill, a relevant agency –

(a) shall place the property under seal;

(b) may, with leave of the Court, auction the property and pay the proceeds into an interest yielding account pending the determination of the matter; or

(c) remove the property to a place designated by the relevant agency.

(9) Property taken or detained under this section shall be deemed to be in the custody of the court and subject only to the order of the Court.

80. (1) Where a person is charged or about to be charged with an offence under this Bill, the relevant agency may apply to the Court for a detention or attachment order of all frozen funds and seized property belonging to or held on behalf of the suspect.

Order of the Court relating to seized
property

(2) An order made under subsection (1) of this section may –

- (c) prohibit a person from making money or property available to or for the benefit of the suspect, except in cases of critical need, including reasonable subsistence expenses;
- (d) authorise the relevant agency to make money or other property available to such person on such conditions as may be specified in the order;
- (e) authorise the relevant agency to auction the property through the office of the Attorney-General and pay the proceeds into an interest yielding account especially where the property in question is perishable or is likely to perish or in imminent danger of perishing or being destroyed;
- (f) require the suspect to provide such information or produce such document as may be required or necessary for an investigation under this Bill; or
- (g) include such other conditions, as the Court may impose.

(3) The Court may, on an application by the Attorney-General or on the advice of the Attorney-General, appoint an official receiver or any other suitable person to auction or manage the property of the suspect during the period of operation of an order made under this section.

(4) An order made under this section shall –

- (h) be published in the Federal Gazette and in two national daily newspapers, by the relevant agency; and
- (i) remain in force until the determination of any charge or intended charge under subsection (1) of this section and, if there is a conviction, until an order for forfeiture is made by the Court or proceedings relating to the forfeiture are concluded.

(5) Where an order made under this section ceases to have effect, the relevant agency shall cause notice of that fact to be published in the Federal Gazette and in two national daily newspapers within sixty days of the cessation.

(6) The relevant agency shall, subsequent to publishing the order, give notice of the order to –

- (i) financial institutions and designated non-financial institutions; and
- (ii) any other person who may hold or be vested with property belonging to or held on behalf of the suspect or convicted person.

(7) Any payment, transfer, pledge, or other disposition of property made in contravention of an order made under this section shall be void.

(8) Property forfeited to the Federal Government shall vest in the Federal Government, where—

- (d) no appeal has been made against the order, at the expiration of the period within which an appeal may be made against the order; and

- (i) a fine of not less than ten million naira and one million naira for every day the offence persists,
- (ii) the withdrawal of licence or forfeiture of assets of the institution, or
- (iii) all the above prescribed penalties.

(4) The officer responsible for this breach may also be referred by the NFIU to the appropriate regulatory or professional body for disciplinary action, including withdrawal of certificates and debarment from practising the profession for a period of not less than five years.

(5) Where a breach of the provision of subsection (1) of this section occurs and it is shown that the breach was not intentional, and that adequate measures were put in place by the financial institution or the designated non-financial institution to prevent the breach from occurring, the Nigerian Financial Intelligence Unit, in consultation with the Regulator or the Self-Regulatory Organisation responsible for the financial institution or designated non-financial institution shall impose such administrative sanctions, as it may consider necessary.

(6) The NFIU, Sanctions Committee and relevant sector regulators shall publish, on their website and in any other form of publication, as considered appropriate, the list of individuals and institutions penalised under this section.

PART XIII - MUTUAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE, EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION AND EXTRADITION

85. (1) A foreign State may make a request to the Attorney-General for assistance in the investigation and prosecution of offences relating to terrorism.

Requests from foreign States

(2) The Attorney-General shall furnish a copy of a request for assistance to the National Security Adviser and the relevant agency.

(3) Where a foreign State makes a request for assistance in the investigation or prosecution of an offence relating to terrorism or extradition where there is mutual legal assistance treaty in force, the Attorney-General may, after due consideration –

- (a) execute the request; or
- (b) inform the requesting State of any reason for not executing the request, or delaying the execution of the request.

(4) Where the Attorney-General decides to execute a request for assistance under subsection (1) of this section, the Attorney-General may apply to the Court for –

(a) an order for the relevant agency to –

- (i) enter and search specified premises or conveyance,
- (ii) search any specified person, or
- (iii) remove any relevant document or material; and

(b) a seizure order, property tracing order, interception of communication order, or

(c) an order for freezing or forfeiture of property or funds in such manner, as the case may require.

(5) The Court, in making an order under subsection (4) of this section, may impose conditions as to payment of debts, sale, transfer or disposal of any property.

(6) Where a prima facie case is established on the basis of the request from a foreign State, the Attorney-General shall file a request for an order of forfeiture of all funds or properties used, being used or intended to be used for the commission of an act of terrorism or other offences under this Bill, and the Court shall grant or reject the application for an order of forfeiture after hearing from all parties, including a bona fide third party.

86. (1) The Attorney-General may, on the recommendation of the National Security Adviser or the relevant agency in charge of a matter, make a request to any foreign State for –

Request to a foreign State

- (a) evidence or information relevant to an offence under this Bill; or
- (b) the restraint and forfeiture of any fund or property located in that foreign State, and which is liable to be forfeited for being a terrorist fund or property that is used, being used or intended to be used for the commission of an act of terrorism.

(2) The Attorney-General may, for the purpose of giving evidence in relation to any proceedings for an offence under this Bill, apply to the Court for an order directing the person mentioned in the Order, who is resident in a foreign State to –

- (a) submit in person or deliver the required document or material in the person's possession or under the person's control to the jurisdiction of the Court; or
- (b) subject to the approval of the foreign State, submit in person to the jurisdiction of the Court of the foreign State.

87. (1) The evidence taken pursuant to section 86 of this Bill, may in any proceedings in a court of a foreign State, if it is authenticated, be prima facie admissible in any proceedings to which the evidence relates, provided that the circumstances and method of collecting the evidence is acceptable to Nigeria.

Evidence pursuant to a request

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, a document is authenticated, where it is –

- (a) signed or certified by a Judge or Magistrate of the foreign State;
- (b) authenticated by the oath or affirmation of a witness; or
- (c) sealed with an official or public seal –
 - (i) of a Ministry or Department of the Government of the foreign State, or
 - (ii) in the case of a foreign territory, protectorate, or colony, of the Officer or authority administering the Government of the foreign territory, protectorate or colony or a department of that territory, protectorate or colony.

88. (1) A request under this Part –

Form of requests

- (a) shall be in writing, dated and signed by or on behalf of the person making the request; and
- (b) may be transmitted by facsimile or by any other electronic device or means.

(2) A request shall –

- (a) confirm that –

- (i) an investigation or prosecution is being conducted in respect of, or
- (ii) a person has been convicted of, a suspected offence of terrorism, an act related to terrorism, or any other offence under this Bill;

- (b) state the grounds on which a person is being investigated or prosecuted for an offence related to terrorism or details of the conviction of the person;
- (c) give sufficient particulars of the identity of the person;
- (d) give sufficient particulars to identify any financial institution or designated non - financial institution, or other persons believed to have information, documents or materials which may be of assistance to the investigation or prosecution;
- (e) specify the manner in which and to whom any information, document or material obtained pursuant to the request is to be produced;
- (f) specify the information, document or material to be obtained from a financial institution or designated non - financial institution or any person which may assist the investigation or prosecution;
- (g) state whether –
 - (i) a freezing or forfeiture order is required, or
 - (ii) the property may be made the subject of such an order; and
- (h) contain such other information as may assist in the execution of the request.

(3) A request shall not be invalidated for the purposes of this Bill or any legal proceedings by failure to comply with the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, where the Attorney-General is satisfied that there is sufficient compliance to enable him execute the request.

(4) Where the Attorney-General considers it appropriate, either because an international arrangement so requires or permits, or it is in the public interest, the Attorney-General may, after deducting the cost incurred for actions taken in Nigeria, make recommendations that any part of any property forfeited under this Bill or the value thereof, be returned or remitted to the requesting State.

(5) Where the whole or any part of the forfeited property, or its value is retained in Nigeria, and vested in the Federal Government, it shall be paid into the Confiscated and Forfeited Assets Account established under any enactment dealing with the proceeds of crime.

89. (1) Offences under this Bill are considered to be extraditable crimes for which extradition may be requested, granted or obtained under the Extradition Act. Extradition

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a person shall not be extradited pursuant to this Bill, where the Government has substantial grounds for believing that a request for extradition for an offence has been made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing a person on account of that person's race, religion, nationality, ethnic origin, or political opinion, or that compliance with the request would prejudice that person's position for any of these reasons.

Exchange of information relating to acts of terrorism, terrorists and terrorist entities, etc.

90. (1) A relevant agency may, on a formal request made by the appropriate authority of a foreign state and with the approval of the Attorney-General, disclose to that authority, any information in its possession or any other government department, relating to any of the following –
- (a) the actions or movements of terrorist entities or persons suspected of involvement in the preparation or the commission of acts of terrorism;
 - (b) the use of forged or falsified travel papers by persons suspected of involvement in the preparation or the commission of acts of terrorism;
 - (c) traffic in explosives or other lethal devices or sensitive materials by terrorist entities, groups or persons suspected of involvement in the preparation or the commission of acts of terrorism; and
 - (d) the use of communication technologies by terrorist entities or persons.

(2) Where the Attorney-General, on the recommendation of relevant agency, considers that there are no means or conditions under which the information, documents or evidence requested could be provided, disclosed or given without prejudice to the national security of Nigeria, the Attorney-General–

- (a) may refuse the request for the production of the document or the disclosure of the evidence or refuse the authorisation of the production of the document or the disclosure of the information; and
- (b) shall notify the requesting authority of the foreign State of the reasons for doing so, unless the specification of those reasons would in itself, in the opinion of the Attorney-General, be prejudicial to the national security of Nigeria.

PART XIV - SPECIAL VICTIMS TRUST FUND

Establishment of Victims Trust Fund

91. (1) There is established in the Office of the Attorney-General a Victims Trust Fund (in this Bill referred to as “the Trust Fund”), into which shall be paid –
