Functions of the Council and its Finance and General Purpose
Committee

[2] There shall be a committee of the Council, to be known as the Finance, and General Purposes Committee, which shall, subject to the directions of the Council, exercise control over the property and expenditure of the University and perform such other functions of the Council as the Council may from time to time delegate to it.

[3] Provision shall be made by statute with respect to the constitution of the Finance and General Purposes Committee.

[4] The Council shall ensure that proper accounts of the University are kept and that the accounts of the University are audited annually by an independent firm of auditors approved by the Council and that an annual report is published by the University together with certified copies of the said accounts as audited.

[5] Subject to this Bill and the statutes, the Council and the Finance and General Purposes Committee may each make rules for the purpose of exercising any of their respective functions or of regulating their own procedure.

[6] Rules made under sub-Clause [5] of this Clause by the Finance and General Purposes Committee shall not come into force unless approved by the Council; and in so far and to the extent that any rules so made by that Committee conflict with any direction given by the Council, whether before or after the coming into force of the rules in question, the directions of the Council shall prevail.

[7] There shall be paid to the members respectively of the Council, the Finance and General Purposes Committee and of any other committee set up by the Council, allowances in respect of travelling and other reasonable expenses, at such rates as may from time to time be fixed by the Minister.

[8] The Council shall meet as and when necessary for the performance of its functions under this Bill and shall meet at least three times in every year.

[9] If requested in writing by any five members of the Council, the chairman shall within 28 days after the receipt of such request call a meeting of the Council.

[10] Any request made under sub-Clause [9] of this Clause shall specify the business to be considered at the meeting and no business not so specified shall be transacted at that meeting.

8. [1] Subject to Clause 6 of this Bill and sub clauses [3] and [4] of this Clause and the provisions of this Bill relating to the Visitor, it shall be the general function of the Senate to organize and control the teaching by the University, the admission of student where no other enactment provides to the contrary and the discipline of students; and to promote research at the University. Functions of the Senate

[2] Without prejudice to the generality of sub clause [1] of this Clause and subject as therein mentioned, it shall in particular be the function of the Senate to make provision for:

[a] the establishment, organization and control of campuses, colleges, schools, institutes and other teaching and research units of the University and the allocation of responsibility for different branches of learning;

[b] the organization and control of courses of study at the University and of the examinations held in conjunction with those courses, including the appointment of examiners, both internal and external;

[c] the award of degrees, and such other qualifications as may be prescribed in connection with examinations held as aforesaid;

[d] the making of recommendations to the Council with respect to the award to any person of an honorary fellowship or honorary degree or the title of professor emeritus;

[e] the establishment, organization and control of halls of residence and similar institutions at the University;

[f] the supervision of the welfare of students at the university and the regulation of their conduct;

[g] the granting of fellowships, scholarships, prizes and similar awards in so far as the awards are within the control of the University; and

[h] determining what descriptions of dress shall be academic dress for the purposes of the University, and regulating the use of academic dress.

[3] The Senate shall not establish any new campus, college, school, department, institute or other teaching and research units of the university, or any hall of residence or similar institution at the University without the approval of the Council.

[4] Subject to this Bill and the statutes, the Senate may make regulations for the purpose of exercising any function conferred on it either by the foregoing provisions of this Clause or otherwise or for the purpose of making provision for any matter for which provision by regulations is authorized or required by this Bill or by statute.

[5] Regulations shall provide that at least one of the persons appointed as the examiners at each final or professional examination held in conjunction with any course of study at the University is not a teacher at the University but is a teacher of the branch of learning to which the course relates at some other University of high repute or a person engaged in practicing the profession in a reputable organization or institution.

[6] Subject to right of appeal to the Council from a decision of the Senate under this sub-Clause, the Senate may deprive any person of any degree, diploma or other award of the University which has been conferred upon him if after due enquiry he is found to have been guilty of dishonorable or scandalous conduct in gaining admission into the University or obtaining that award.

9. [1] The Vice-Chancellor shall, in relation to the University, take precedence before all other members of the University except the Chancellor and subject to Clause 4 of this Bill except the Pro-Chancellor and any other person for the time being acting as Chairman of the Council.

Functions of the Vice-Chancellor

[2] Subject to Clauses 6, 7 and 14 of this Bill, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the general function, in addition to any other functions conferred on him by this Bill or otherwise of directing the activities of the University and shall be the Chief Executive and Accounting Officer of the University and ex-officio Chairman of the Senate.

[3] The Vice Chancellor shall be the Chairman of the University Tenders' Board, which is saddled with the responsibility of approving the conduct of public procurement of goods, works and services within the approved threshold from time to time.

[4] It shall be the responsibility of the Vice Chancellor to establish and appoint members of the Tenders' Board in line with the extant Public Procurement Rules and Regulations.

PART II – GENERAL FUND, TRANSFER OF PROPERTY, ETC, TO THE UNIVERSITY .

10. [1] There shall be a general fund of the university which shall consist of the following:

General fund of the University.

[a] Annual budgetary allocation by the Federal Government through; Appropriation by the National Assembly;

[b] grants-in-aid;

[c] fees;

[d] income derived from investments;

[e] gifts, legacies, endowments and donations not accepted for a particular purpose;

[f] income derived from the exercise of any functions conferred or imposed on the University by this Bill;

[g] any other amounts, charges or dues recoverable by the University;

[i] revenue, from time to time, accruing to the University by way of subvention;

[j] interests on investments;

[k] donations and legacies accruing to the University from any source for the general or special purposes of the University; and

[l] Regular TETFund interventions;

[2] The general fund shall be applied for the purposes of the University.

11. [1] All property held by or on behalf of the Provisional Council of the University shall, by virtue of this sub-Clause and without further assurance, vest in the University and be held by it for the purpose of the University.

Transfer of Property

[2]The provisions of the Second Schedule to this Bill shall have effect with respect to, and to matters arising from, the transfer of property by this Clause and with respect to the other matters mentioned in that Schedule

PART III – STATUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY

12. [1] Subject to this Bill, the University may make statutes for any of the following purposes, that is to say: -

Statutes of the University

[a] Making provision with respect to the composition and constitution of any authority of the University;

[b] Specifying and regulating the powers and duties of any authority of the University, and regulating any other matter connected with the University or any of its authorities;

[c] Regulating the admission of students [where no other enactment provides to the contrary], and their discipline and welfare;

[d] Determining whether any particular matter is to be treated as an academic or non-academic matter for the purposes of this Bill and of any statute, regulation or other instrument made thereunder; or [e] Making provision for any other matter for which provision by statute is authorized or required by this Bill.

[2] Subject to Clause 25[6] of this Bill, the Interpretation Act shall apply in relation to any statute made under this Clause as it applies to a subsidiary instrument within the meaning of Clause 28[1] of that Act.

[3] The statute contained in the Third Schedule to this Bill shall be deemed to have come into force on the commencement of this Bill and shall be deemed to have been made under this Clause by the University.

[4] The power to make statutes conferred by this Clause shall not be prejudiced or limited in any way by reason of the inclusion or omission of any matter in or from the statute contained in the Third Schedule to this Bill or any subsequent statute.

13. [1] The power of the University to make statutes shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this Clause and not otherwise.

Power to Make and Approve Statutes

[2] A proposed statute shall not become law unless it has been approved:

[a] at a meeting of the Senate, by the votes of not less than two thirds of the members present and voting; and

[b] at a meeting of the Council, by the votes of not less than two thirds of the members present and voting.

[3] A proposed statute may originate either in the Senate or in the Council, and may be approved as required by sub clause [2] of this Clause by either one of those bodies or the other.

[4] A statute which:

[a] makes provision for or alters the composition or constitution of the Council, the Senate or any other authority of the University; or

[b] provides for the establishment of a new campus or college or for the amendment or revocation of any statute.

[5] For the purpose of Clause 2[2] of the Interpretation Act, a statute shall be treated as being made on the date on which it is duly approved by the Council after having been duly approved by the Senate, or on the date on which it is duly approved by the Senate after having been duly approved by the Council, as the case may be or, in the case of a statute falling within sub clause [4] of this Clause, on the date on which it is approved by the President.

14. A statute may be proved in any court by the production of a copy thereof bearing or having affixed to it a certificate purporting to be signed by the Vice-Chancellor or the Secretary to the Council to the effect that the copy is a true copy of a statute of the University.

Proof of Statute in Court

PART IV – SUPERVISION AND DISCIPLINE

15. [1] In the event of any doubt or dispute arising at any time as to the meaning of any provision of a statute, the matter may be referred to the visitor, who shall take such advice and make such decision thereon as he shall deem fit.

Power of Visitor to Decide Meaning of Statutes

[2] The decision of the visitor on any matter referred to him under this clause shall be binding upon the authorities, staff and students of the University, and where any question as to the meaning of any provision of a statute has been decided by the visitor under this clause, no question as to the meaning of that provision shall be entertained by any court of law in Nigeria:

Provided that nothing in this sub clause shall affect any power of a court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether any provision of a statute is wholly or partly void as being ultra vires or as being inconsistent with the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

[3] The foregoing provisions of this clause shall apply in relation to any doubt or dispute as to whether any matter is for the purposes of this Bill an academic or a non-academic matter as they apply in relation to any such doubt or dispute as is mentioned in sub clause [1] of this clause; and accordingly the references in sub clause [2] of this clause to any question as to the meaning of any provision of a statute shall include references to any question as to whether any matter is for the said purposes an academic or a non-academic matter.

16. [1] The President shall be the Visitor of the University.

The Visitor

[2] The Visitor shall cause a visitation to the University when necessary, at least every five years, or direct that such a visitation be conducted by such person or persons as the Visitor may deem fit and in respect of any of the affairs of the University.

[3] It shall be the duty of the bodies and persons comprising the University to make available to the Visitor and to any other person conducting a visitation in pursuance of this Clause, such facilities and assistance as he or they may reasonably require for the purposes of a visitation.

[4] The Visitor shall make the report of such visitations and white paper thereon available to the Council which shall implement same

17. [1] If it appears to the Council that a member of the Council [other than the Pro-Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor] should be removed from office on the ground of misconduct or inability to perform the functions of his office or employment, the Council shall make a recommendation to that effect through the Minister to the President, and the President, after making such enquiries [if any] as he may consider appropriate approves the recommendation, he may direct the removal of the person in question from office.

Removal of certain

[2] It shall be the duty of the Minister to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument embodying a direction under sub clause [1] of this Clause to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates.

18. [1] If it appears to the Council that there are reasons for believing that any person employed as a member of the academic, administrative or professional staff of the University, other than the Vice-Chancellor, should be removed from his office or employment on the ground of misconduct or of professional inability to perform the functions of his office or employment, the Council shall: -

Removal and discipline of academic, administrative and professional staff

[a] give notice of those reasons to the person in question;

[b] afford him an opportunity of making representations in person on the matter by the Council; and

[c] for the person in question to be afforded an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by the investigating committee with respect to the matter, and if the Council, after considering the report of the investigating committee, is satisfied that the person in question should be removed as aforesaid, the Council may so remove him by an instrument in writing signed on the directions of the Council.

[2] The Vice-Chancellor may, in a case of misconduct by a member of the staff which in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor is prejudicial to the interest of the University, suspend such member and any such suspension shall forthwith be reported to the Council.

[3] For good cause, any member of the staff may be suspended from his duties or his appointment may be terminated by the Council; and for the purposes of this sub clause "good cause" means:

[a] conviction for any offence which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit for the discharge of the functions of his office; or

[b] any physical or mental incapacity which the Council, after obtaining medical advice, considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office; or

[c] conduct of a scandalous or other disgraceful nature which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office; or

[d] conduct which the Council considers to be such as to constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to discharge the functions of his office or to comply with the terms and conditions of his service; or

[e] conduct which the Council considers to be generally of such nature as to render the continued appointment or service of the person concerned prejudicial or detrimental to the interest of the University.

[4] Any person suspended pursuant to sub clause [2] or [3] of this Clause shall be on half pay and the Council shall before the expiration of a period of three months after the date of such suspension consider the case against that person and come to a decision as:

[a] whether to continue such person's suspension and if so on what terms [including the proportion of his emoluments to be paid to him];

[b] whether to reinstate such person, in which case the Council shall restore his full emoluments to him with effect from the date of suspension;

[c] whether to terminate the appointment of the person concerned, in which case such a person shall not be entitled to the proportion of his emoluments withheld during the period of suspension; or

[d] whether to take such lesser disciplinary action against such person [including the restoration of such proportion of his emoluments that might have been withheld] as the Council may determine.

[5] In any case where the Council, pursuant to this Clause, decides to continue a person's suspension or decides to take further disciplinary action against a person, the Council shall before the expiration of a period of three months from such decision come to a final determination in respect of the case concerning any such person.

[6] It shall be the duty of the person by whom an instrument of removal is signed in pursuance of sub clause [1] of this Clause to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates.

[7] Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Clause shall:

[a] apply to any directive given by the Visitor in consequence of any visitation; or

[b] prevent the Council from making regulations for the discipline of other categories of workers of the University as may be prescribed.

19. [1] If, on the recommendation of the Senate, it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that a person appointed as an examiner for any examination of the University ought to be removed from his office or appointment, then, except in such cases as may be prescribed by the Vice-Chancellor may, after affording the examiner an opportunity of making representations in person on the matter to the Vice-Chancellor, remove the examiner from the appointment by an instrument in writing signed by the Vice-Chancellor. Removal of Examiners

[2] Subject to the provisions of regulations made in pursuance of Clause 7[5] of this Bill, the Vice-Chancellor may, on the recommendation of the Senate, appoint an appropriate person as examiner in the place of the examiner removed in pursuance of sub clause [1] of this Clause.

[3] It shall be the duty of the Vice-Chancellor on signing an instrument of removal pursuance to this Clause, to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates.

20. [1] The Students shall be: Participation and Discipline of Students.

[a] represented in the University's Students Welfare Board and other committees that deal with the affairs of students;

[b] Participate in various aspects of curriculum development;

[c] Participate in the process of assessing academic staff in respect of teaching; and

[d] Be encouraged to be more self-assured as part of the national development process.

[2] Subject to the provisions of this Clause, where it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that any student of the University has been guilty of misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor may, without prejudice to any other disciplinary powers conferred on him by statute or regulations, direct:

[a] that the student shall not, during such period as may be specified in the directions, participate in such activities of the University, or make use of such facilities of the University, as may be so specified, or

[b] that the activities of the student shall, during such period as may be specified in the direction, be restricted in such manner as may be so specified, or

[c] that the student be rusticated for such period as may be specified in the direction; or

[d] that the student be expelled from the University.

[3] Where a direction is given under sub clause [1][c] or [d] of this Clause in respect of any student, that student may, within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, appeal to the Council; and where such an appeal is brought, the Council shall, after causing such inquiry to be made in the matter as the Council considers just either confirm or set aside the direction or modify it in such manner as the Council thinks fit.

[4] The fact that an appeal from a direction is brought in pursuance to sub clause [2] of this Clause shall not affect the operation of the direction while the appeal is pending:

[a] The Vice-Chancellor may delegate his powers under this Clause to a disciplinary board consisting of such members of the University as he may nominate.

[b] Nothing in this Clause shall be construed as preventing the restriction or termination of students' activities at the University otherwise than on the ground of misconduct.

[c] A direction under sub clause [2][a] of this Clause may be combined with a direction under sub clause [2][b] of this Clause.

21. [1] No person shall be required to satisfy requirements as to any of the following matters, that is to say, race [including ethnic grouping], sex, account of race, place of birth or of family origin, or religious or political persuasion, as a condition of becoming or continuing to be a student at the university, the holder of any degree of the University or of any appointment or employment at the University, or a member of anybody established by virtue of this Bill; and no person shall be subject to any disadvantage or accorded any advantage relation to the University, by reference to any of those matters.

Exclusion of discrimination on account of race, religion, etc.

[2] Nothing in sub clause [1] of this Clause shall be construed as preventing the University from imposing any disability or restriction on any of the persons mentioned in that sub clause where such person willfully refuses or fails on grounds of religious belief to undertake any duty generally and uniformly imposed on all such person or any group of them which duty, having regard to its nature and the special circumstances pertaining thereto, is in the opinion of the University reasonably justifiable in the national interest.

22. Without prejudice to the provisions of the Land Use Act, the University shall not dispose of or charge any land or an interest in any land [including any land transferred to the University by this Bill] except with the prior written consent, either general or special, of the Governor, provided that such consent shall not be required in the case of any lease or tenancy at a rack-rent for a term not exceeding 21 years or any lease or tenancy to a member of the University for residential purpose.

Restriction on disposal of land by University

23. Except as may be otherwise provided by statute or by regulations, the quorum and procedure of any body of persons established by this Bill shall be as determined by that body.

Quorum and procedure of bodies established by this Bill

24. [1] For the purpose of the Land Use Act [which provides for the compulsory acquisition of land for public purposes] any purpose of the University shall be the same as that of the Federation.

Transfer of Land to the University

[2] Where an estate or interest in land is acquired by the Government pursuant to this clause, the Government may, by a certificate under the hand and seal of the person so authorized or any other person authorized in that behalf transfer it to the University.

25. [1] Anybody of persons established by this Bill shall, without prejudice to the generality of the powers of that body, have power to appoint committees, which need not consist exclusively of members of that body, and to authorize a committee established by it:

Appointment of committee, etc.

[a] to exercise, on its behalf, such of its functions as it may determine;

[b] to co-opt members, and
